Gang led by a woman

$19.2 million in art masterpieces stolen

BLESSINGGTON, Ireland (UPI) — A gang of thieves led by a woman with a French accent stole $19.2 million worth of art masterpieces Friday night in a lightning raid on the home of financier Sir Alfred Beit, police said.

Police said the raiders, three men and two women armed with revolvers, burst into the home 20 miles south of Dublin, tied up Sir Alfred, his wife and three servants and escaped with the paintings in seven minutes.

The gang bound the staff hand and foot with twine in the library which housed the art collection, one of the greatest private collections in Europe.

Police said the woman leader apparently was an art expert and coolly selected the nine most valuable works in the collection at Beit's Russborough House.

The raiders removed the canvasses from their frames before escaping in a small station wagon.

Police said the paintings may have been stolen as a ransom for a political or criminal purpose.

Authorities set up roadblocks and alerted airports and seaports.

Sir Alfred, a former Conservative member of Parliament for St. Pancras and a member of a South African diamond family, freed himself about 30 minutes after the 10 p.m. raid.

Sir Alfred brought 33 paintings from South Africa to Ireland in 1954 and hung them in Russborough House, an 18th century home overlooking a lake.

National highway death toll drops 25 per cent

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Energy chief John C. Sawhill said Friday that the national highway death toll dropped 25 per cent in March —the first month that all states observed the energy-conserving 55 mile per hour speed limit.

To bolster the government's faltering energy savings program, Sawhill also proposed measures citizens should follow this summer. They ranged from warmer air conditioner settings to fewer neckties.

Sawhill and Dr. James Gregory, head of the National Traffic Safety Administration, told a news conference that an estimated 3,191 persons were killed on U.S. highways in March compared to 4,283 during the same month last year.

The decline in fatalities continues a trend which began last Noovember when a few states began to enforce the lower speed limit. Gregory estimated that a total of 3,700 lives have been saved since then.

Gregory said the lower death toll was directly related to the 55 m.p.h. speed limit and a tendency of motorists to drive less during the gas shortage. "Not only will we save fuel, but lives as well, if enforcement officials will continue their highway safety efforts and maintain the lower speed limit," he added.

Sawhill said the shortage of gasoline would be 4 to 6 per cent this summer, at worst. He said he expected some spot shortages, but none of the long lines which developed last year at gas pumps.

The energy conserving measures which Sawhill suggested included:

Setting air conditioner thermostats at 78 to 80 degrees. He estimated a homeowner would save 15 per cent on his cooling costs if the thermostat is set six degrees higher than last year.

—Operate the air conditioner only on very hot days and do not even buy one "unless you really need it."

— Wearing more sports clothes and fewer neckties. " . . . An open collar rather than a tight collar with a tie means greater comfort, equivalent to several degrees of atmospheric temperature," Sawhill said.

—Turn off as many electric lights as possible, not only to save electricity but also to cut down on the heat generated by electric lights.

—Do not purchase any unnecessary automobile accessories; cut out at least one short automobile trip every week; study gasoline efficiency tables before purchasing a car.

Contradicts report from Washington

Reinecke wants trial to continue on schedule

By MIKE BUTOWITSCH
P-B Staff Writer

ONTARIO — In direct contradiction to reports from Washington, Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke said Friday his attorneys had not asked for a delay of his trial beyond the June 4 gubernatornial primary.

Reinecke claimed that U.S. District Judge Barrington D. Parker was simply informed by his attorneys that if his request for a change of venue to California was denied, he would appeal.

Conceding that this latest move could delay his trial, Reinecke maintained, "It does not necessarily mean a postponement. We still want the trial before the primary."

Reinecke was indicted by a Watergate grand jury on three counts of lying to the Senate Judiciary Committee during testimony concerning the financing of the 1972 Republican National Convention.

The dispute centers around his knowledge of an offer by International Telephone and Telegraph to help finance the convention, then scheduled for San Diego.

Reinecke said his knowledge of the latest move by his attorneys stemmed from a brief phone call. Though he said he wasn't totally familiar with exactly what his attorneys in Washington had done, he did point out that his first priority was having the trial before the primary. He added that a change of venue could be granted and still have the trial before June.

Reports from Washington indicate that Reinecke's attorneys asked Assistant Special Prosecutor Joseph J. Connolly for a delay of his trial until after the primary.

Judge Parker reportedly agreed to the request and said he would sign an order to that effect next week.

In the afternoon press conference, Reinecke said both the change of venue and a trial date prior to the primary were crucial to his campaign.

Reinecke charged Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass. and Sen. John Tunney, D-Calif., with fomenting his legal troubles in a political maneuver to place a Democratic administration in California. This strategy, he explained, would further the presidential hopes of Sen. Kennedy.

Reinecke pleaded "absolutely not guilty" to the three counts of perjury and maintained his innocence yesterday, pointing out that he had worked five years in preparation for his gubernatorial campaign and implying that he didn't want anything to ruin his chances now.

Blue mist hovers over Chicago

30,000 persons flee deadly chemical cloud

CHICAGO (UPI) — A huge chemical storage tank sprang a leak Friday, sending a five-mile-long, half-mile-wide blue cloud of potentially deadly fumes 12,000 feet over Chicago's far South Side and adjacent suburbs.

Authorities began evacuating an area of 30,000 people.

Gov. Daniel Walker, after flying over the affected area, mobilized three battalions of the Illinois National Guardsmen to aid in evacuations and prevent looting.

All available fire department ambulances were called to the area around the tank of the Bulk Terminals Co. at 122nd Street and Stony Island Avenue.

Policemen and firemen working in the area wore gas masks.

Roseland Community Hospital reported at least 16 persons, some with heart conditions, had been brought in—most of them coughing heavily, having difficulty in breathing, and complaining of irritated, dry throats.

Ambulances were used to pick up eight or nine persons at Atgeld Gardens, a heavily populated housing project, and authorities said "a lot of people" passed out at Washington Carver High School, where some of those evacuated were taken.

Dr. Badi Boulos, a toxicologist at the University of Illinois Medical School, said the silicon tetrachloride fumes could be fatal to children or persons with respiratory ailments. And a spokesman for the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency said there was a danger the tank might rupture and shower the mist "on the heart of Chicago."

UPI Reporter John L. Taylor, preparing to evacuate his own family, described the mist as "a big cloud or fog. You had to put your car lights on to drive through it. After you breathe it for a while you have a burning sensation."

Another neighborhood resident, Mrs. Jesse Hudson, said, "We were at a community meeting when they came around with a loud speaker telling everybody to get out.

"It was just horrible. The stuff was real thick and you couldn't breathe outside. You couldn't even see down the block. People were coughing, choking."

"When they came and told us to get out and I went outside, I thought I was going to die," said Mrs. Tesse Williams. "I couldn't breathe and everything burned. They ought to let people know that stuff like that is around."

Persons entering the neighborhood felt their lungs begin to burn within minutes.

"It could cause a complete degeneration of cells in the respiratory tract," said Boulos. "The acid kills the lining of the respiratory tract and it could, in some cases, result in death."

Police paddy wagons were called into the area to aid in the evacuations. Officers sealed off a 40-block segment of the Calumet Expressway because the hanging mist was causing visibility problems. Firemen said residents of Harvey, 10 miles away, noticed the substance.

'ACID MIST' VICTIM

Firemen administer oxygen to a victim of a dangerous blue "acid mist" which spread over much of Chicago's South Side Friday following a chemical tank leak. Gov. Daniel Walker, after flying over the affected area, mobilized three battalions of the Illinois National Guard to aid in the evacuation of a population estimated at 30,000 and to prevent looting.

Probe of 4 plane crashes ordered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government Friday ordered "a special in-depth inspection" of flight operations at Pan American World Airways where four plane crashes in nine months have claimed 290 lives.

Federal Aviation Administrator Alexander P. Butterfield said the inspection "will begin immediately, and will cover such areas as pilot training, operation procedures, pilot supervision, pilot scheduling" as well as other areas.

A spokesman for Pan Am said, "We welcome the investigation and will cooperate fully."

Buterfield's action followed the crash of a Pan Am jetliner April 23 on the island of Bali, which killed 107 persons. On Jan. 30, another Pan Am jetliner crashed attempting a landing at Pago Pago, Samoa, killing 101 persons.

A third Pan Am jet—a cargo plane — crashed at Boston's Logan Airport, Nov. 3, 1973, killing three persons. Last July 22, 79 persons died when a Pan Am jet crashed on takeoff from the island of Tahiti in the Pacific.

"In view of the four crashes, we feel the investigation is a prudent thing to do," a spokesman for the FAA said.

But he emphasized that the agency was not drawing "any conclusions."

The investigation, which will take up to two months to complete, was ordered after FAA officials met with Pan American officials.

The National Transportation Safety Board, which investigates all commercial accidents involving fatalities, also is investigating the accidents, but as yet has not issued a report of its findings.

Drivers must conserve or face new gas crisis

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Another critical gasoline shortage faces California if the state's 12.5 million motorists don't continue to conserve fuel, a Department of Conservation official said Friday.

H. G. Mefferd, fuel allocation officer in the department's Division of Oil and Gas, said gasoline shortages will continue to ease during the latter part of this month and during May.

"But there are going to be problems this summer if the people don't continue their conservation practices," he warned.

Traditionally, Mefferd said, California builds up its gasoline reserve during the winter months and then uses the excess during the peak driving months of June, July and August.

"There is only going to be so much supply even with the lifting of the embargo," Mefferd said. "What's happened is the state has been drawing from the winter reserve and not saving for the summer peak months.

"If the conservation effort isn't continued there will be a shortfall this summer," he said.

The "gasoline crunch" eased somewhat in California during April and the familiar long lines and traffic jams around service stations disappeared.

Whether those long lines appear again will depend on the public, Mefferd said.

He said facts show that the number of cars on the state's highways is creeping back up to the pre-fuel crisis days, and from his personal observation it appears more motorists are exceeding the lower 55 mile per hour speed limit on freeways.

Government only problem in U.S. health: doctors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An association of doctors said Friday there is no crisis in health care in America except for the problems created by governmental interference.

Dr. Donald Quinlan of Chicago, president of the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, asked the House Ways and Means Committee to reject any national health insurance plan.

The association's testimony was the strongest opposition to various national health insurance plans so far during three days of hearings.

"There is no health care crisis in the United States," Quinlan said. "There is no public outcry for change. There is no public demand for Congress to dismantle our present system and build a European-style system on the wreckage.

"But there is widespread despair over bureaucratic bungling and rising costs that characterize Medicare and Medicaid."

He said the only crisis in health care in America was "created artificially by government intervention and propaganda."

Ramona School hit by 2nd fire

LA VERNE — A fire apparently set by an arsonist did $4,000 to a multi-purpose room Friday afternoon at Ramona Intermediate School.

The first occurred during the noon lunch hour at the school and officials said that the fire "was not accidental."

Three engine companies responded to the blaze and quickly knocked down the flames. Damage was limited to the stage area of the multi-purpose room.

There were no injuries and classes at the school were able to resume.

An arson investigation is under way.

The fire was the second one to strike the school in three weeks. On April 4 another fire caused about $12,000 damage to a science room at the school.

Like the fire Friday, the earlier blaze also occurred during the noon lunch hour.

Staff gives Nixon 36 edited tapes for final review

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon's legal staff has given him the edited transcripts of 36 subpoenaed tapes for final review before they are turned over to the House Judiciary Committee by its Tuesday morning deadline, White House aides reported Friday.

Although the committee had subpoenaed the actual tapes of 42 Watergate related conversations for its impeachment inquiry, these officials said six tapes are missing. Five were never recorded because the recording machine had run out of tape, they said, and the sixth conversation never took place.

In any event, the presidential aides strongly indicated Nixon intended to furnish only transcripts and not the actual tapes, an arrangement that Rep. Peter W. Rodino, D-N.J., the Judiciary Committee chairman, has declared would be unacceptable.

Nixon's aides, who could not be quoted by name, said profanities and irrelevant remarks had been deleted from the transcripts, but that they were "complete in their integrity" and would absolve the President of any complicity in the Watergate cover-up.

White House speechwriters were preparing a "white paper" to be made public at the same time the tape transcripts are turned over to Rodino's committee.

Although no decision had been made, officials said, Nixon was considering a broadcast address to the nation on Monday, the day before the committee's deadline for a presidential response to its subpoena.

Nixon was taking the transcripts with him for a long weekend at his Camp David, Md., retreat to study them in their entirety before they are given to Rodino's committee. Before his departure, the President conferred with White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler and chief of staff Alexander M. Haig.

Jury deliberates charges against Mitchell, Stans

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jury Friday deliberated criminal charges against Nixon officials John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans, the first former cabinet officers to go on trial in almost half a century.

The jury of nine men and three women apparently was painstakingly weighing each of the 15 counts of conspiracy, obstruction of justice and perjury against Mitchell and Stans, who gave up their powerful government posts to run the President's 1972 reelection campaign.

The two men are charged with conspiring to impede a federal investigation of fugitive financier Robert L. Vesco's freewheeling business operations in return for a secret $200,000 contribution to Nixon's campaign and then lying to a grand jury about their actions.

If convicted, the defendants could face a maximum penalty of five years on each count. Although the penalties amount to 45 years against each man it is customary in this federal court district for terms to be served concurrently. Fines could total $80,000.

After almost eight hours of deliberation —the jury first got the case late Thursday —the panel asked to review a memorandum from Vesco to F. Donald Nixon, the President's brother.

Also at the request of the jury, U.S. District Court Judge Lee P. Gagliardi reread his instructions dealing with conspiracy, indicating the jury was still pondering the first charges.

The comings and goings of the jury sent ripples of activity through the courtroom, which has been packed every one of the 46 trial days over the past 10 weeks. The crowd of reporters and cameramen waiting outside the gray granite federal court building was swelled throughout the day by between 100 and 150 curious spectators.

The judge touched on the political nature of the case in his final instructions Thursday by telling the jurors: "Without doing violence to your individual judgment, do not surrender your honest convictions for the mere purpose of rendering a verdict."

The Vesco memo, provided to the jurors, threatened to "blow the lid off" Vesco's secret cash donation to the campaign unless action was taken to stop a Securities and Exchange Commission probe of the financier's manipulations.

Prosecutor John R. Wing, said in his summation the memo represented an "out and out threat addressed really to the President of the United States" to do something about the probe.

Services to the needy

Economy Shop offers help and hope

By JOSEPH H. FIRMAN
P-B STaff Writer

CLAREMONT -- A small, white building on First Street just off Indian Hill Booulevard is the focus for a flourishing program that has brought help and hope to thousands of needy people for more than four decades.

This is the Economy Shop, a non-profit organization thriving on donations from the community, operated by volunteer help, and providing a wide variety of charitable services to the underprivileged.

Founded as a project of the community service coomitte of the Claremont Congregational Church, the Economy Shop has just celebrated its 41st anniversary.

Over the years it has received support from local clubs and organizations, but since 1941 it has been a purely civic enterprise working in cooperation with the Claremont Coordinating Council to avoid duplication in relief work.

The Economy Shop accepts from the community donations of clothing (especially outgrown children's clothes), furniture, appliances, books, picture frames, toys, dolls, purses, clocks, lamps, shoes, records, bric-a-brac, quilts, layettes and afghans. These are cleaned, refurbished and repaired by volunteers and sold to the public.

Proceeds from the sales take care of emergency hospital bills for needy residents, dental care, prescription glasses, medicines and special equipment for the care of children or elderly people. Economy Shop tides over families when the bread-winner is disabled, sends youths to camp during the summer, and provides toys, candy, food and gifts at Christmas time.

Over the years the Ecnomy Shop has given an average of more than $1,000 a year in services and financial support to the needy.

Board members are Dr. and Mrs. William L. Nute, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wright, Mrs. Annett Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Burton, Miss Hazel Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Tibbals and Mrs. Bertha Uniacke.

Mrs. Uniacke is the dean of Economy Shop volunteers. She moved to Claremont when her late husband was on the Pomona College faculty, and she joined the welfare group 32 years ago. She seldom misses a day.

Claremont has been very good to the Economy Shop, both by contributing goods and supporting the sales, according to Mrs. Uniacke. ("We get some fearful and wonderful things," she said with a smile.).

She stressed that service to recipients of Economy Shop help is "immediate and confidential." The shop provides aid to local families promptly and without publicity.

"Our main object is not to make money but to help people," said Mrs. Uniacke. "We temper the wind to the shorn lamb."

Is he a candidate or not?

Kennedy's plans for '76 uncertain

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's decision whether or not to seek the presidency in 1976 remained as uncertain as ever Friday despite what appeared to be a flat rejection Thursday.

Kennedy triggered the latest furor about his presidential plans Thursday when he told a reporter in New York City that he would not be a candidate.

Several hours later in Washington, without questioning the accuracy of the earlier report, Kennedy said his position remained unchanged from his previous statements that he has reached no decision.

Kennedy, the leading candidate for the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination in every poll, promised Thursday evening to make a final statement sometime late in 1975.

In 1972, he decided against making the race because of family responsibilities, specifically the fatherless children of his two assassinated brothers and his own three children.

There has been speculation that this feeling may have been heightened by the illness of his oldest son, 12-year-old Teddy, whose leg was amputated because of cancer.

Kennedy, arriving after a tiring trip from Moscow, was interviewed by Elizabeth Coleman of ABC-TV, New York.

Kennedy was asked "are you going to be running in 1976, senator?

"No."

"Absolutely not?"

"That's right."

Arriving for a dinner five hours later in Washington, Kennedy said he did not question the statement or the accuracy of it but added "my position is unchanged."

A possible explanation was Kennedy's statement that he was "tired" after being on the go for 18 hours and may have misstated his position or possibly misunderstood the question.

2-cent hike in milk looms

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The retail price of milk in Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties and parts of Ventura and Santa Barbara will be hiked 2 cents per half gallon effective May 5, state agriculture officials said Friday.

C.B. Christensen, director of the State Department of Food and Agrculture, which controls the price of milk in California, said the jump was "necessary to cover the increased costs of processing and distribution."

The price hikes, submitted to the Cost of Living Council for approval, increase the retail store price to 71 cents per half gallon in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and Orange County.

In the densely populated portions of San Bernardino and Riverside counties, part of Ventura County and the eastern portion of Santa Barbara County, half gallon prices will rise to 72 cents.

In the sparsely populated portions of eastern San Bernardino and Riverside counties, the half gallon price will jump to 73 cents.

"The higher prices represent the first increase to the distribution segment of the dairy industry in this area in over three years," Christensen said.

"The previous increases in milk prices paid by consumers were passed directly through to the dairy farmers," Christensen said.

Turkish court upholds life terms for 3

ANKARA (UPI) — A Turkish appeals court Friday upheld the life sentences imposed on three Americans convicted of hashish smuggling. They originally were sentenced to death but that sentence was commuted.

The Fifth Court of Appeals also ruled against a new trial for the two women and one man but did agree with their argument that the court which tried them no right to seize the mminbus in which the 230 pounds of hashish was found.

The court ruled that article 36 of the Turkish penal code did not allow the seizure because the vehicles did not belong to the Americans—Kathryin Zenz, 28, of Lancaster, Wis., Joann Marie McDaniel, 29, of Coos Bay, Ore., and Robert E. Hubbard, 23, of San Antonio, Tex.

Tension in Claremont

Park off-limits during school day

CLAREMONT — Claremont High School Principal Alex Hughes announced Friday that Cahuilla Park will be closed indefinitely during school hours to all high-school-aged students.

Hughes made the announcement after two days of tension on the 2,200-student campus.

Police cleared students from sitting on the Cahuilla Park wall adjacent to the school after Hughes had met with his administrative staff, district superintendent R.S. Kirkendall, and community resources officer Gus Kitterle, and requested the action.

Tension mounted on the campus Friday morning after a report that three black youths who were not Claremont High students were extorting money from white students at Cahuilla Park.

On Thursday two teachers reported seeing two white students chasing a black student across the parking lot. A group of students sitting on the park wall was attracted to the incident, and they were joined by many students leaving classes and going home.

Police were called, and three units responded. Officers and proctors dispersed the crowd.

Hughes, after a meeting with his staff and Kitterle, decided to stop "outside elements" from getting onto campus.

When Claremont High students arrived at school Friday morning, they discovered the Oxford Avenue entrance to the parking lot barricaded, and the Indian Hill Boulevard entrance manned by a high school proctor and a police officer who barred entry to the campus to anyone who couldn't identify himself as belonging there.

Students thronged on the wall as usual, and when a rock was thrown at a car leaving the parking lot, fights broke out.

It was then that Hughes decided to clear the wall and make the park "off limits" from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. during school days.

Two 15-year-old Claremont High students were taken to the police station, charged with failure to obey a police officer, and were released to their parents.

Acting Police Chief Charles Starcher said that if the school requests an officer, he will be dispatched.

Starcher summed up the incidents as "a few minor bumps and bruises, and hurt pride."

Claremont urges no signal change

CLAREMONT — The City Council has voted to ask the county to modernize the left-turn traffic signals at Arrow Highway and Indian Hill Boulevard.

The council Tuesday night supported a recommendation from the city Traffic Safety Committee opposing elimination of the left-turn signals and voted to ask the county to change a signalization contract already awarded.

The contract calls for taking out the left-turn signals. The city would like the left-turn signals to remain, as long as they can be modernized. Four members of the Traffic Safety Committee supported the action.

Public Works Director Paul Cook told the council that a contract has been awarded for removal of the Arrow Highway left-turn signals at Indian Hill Boulevard.

Cook had recommended removal of the left-turn signals because a state traffic manual calls for separate left turn phasing only when the peak hour traffic reaches a certain level, and Arrow Highway does not qualify.

Committee member John Sloan said that the left-turn arrows are the only "sure thing" school children have to cross the intersection.

"I don't understand the government being against saving $2,400." It would cost about $600 a light to update the signals.

The county Board of Supervisors has awarded a $552,313.29 contract to Aman Brothers for the widening of Arrow Highway in Pomona and Claremont to a divided four-lane highway eastward to Indian Hill Boulevard.

Youth hostels group to plan summer trips

CLAREMONT — The 12th annual summer travel program for youth, sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Council of American Youth Hostels, will be kicked off officially at a meeting Sunday at the Youth Activities Center.

The meeting will be the first of two. The other will be held May 5. Both meetings start at 2 p.m.

Topics for discussion will range from physical conditioning to packing a six-week wardrobe into a pair of saddlebags. Films and slides from past AYH trips are planned along with ample time for questions and answers.

This is the 12th year the council is holding meetings as part of the orientation for its summer trips program. Executive Director Pete van Nuys recalls that it began with the enthusiastic return of the first local group from Europe in 1962.

"It's grown into a program with trips not only in Europe, but Canada, Hawaii and throughout the western U.S." van Nuys said.

AYH plans the trip, then sends groups of seven to 10 persons with an adult leader. "Groups travel on a low budget and a high sense of adventure," van Nuys explained.

"They share," he said, "a special attitude toward travel, reaching out to each other and to the people they meet along the way for authentic experiences."

Van Nuys indicated that spaces still are available in both foreign and domestic travel groups.

Persons interested in a summer adventure with AYH should contact van Nuys at 215 W. First St.

Chamber elects new officers for the coming year

POMONA — Robert Lewis, president of Foothill Beverage Co., has been elected president of the Pomona Chamber of Commerce.

He succeeds Norman Williamson, Jr., who automatically becomes treasurer. The change in leadership takes effect on July 1.

Other officers include Jay Ambrose, manager of Sears Co. store, Joe Gendron, editor of the Progress-Bulletin, and Lynn Rountree, assistant superintendent of the Pomona Unified School District, as vice presidents.

These five members plus Dave Ormiston, chamber manager, will make up the chamber's executive committee.

Lewis had served on the chamber board in 1966 and 1972. During the past year, he was a vice president and headed the organizational development council.

New officers were elected at a recent board of directors meeting.

Chino presses on to keep hills airport study alive

CHINO — The City of Chino plans to continue with sponsorship of a feasibility study on building a major airport in the chino Hills despite Anaheim's recent decision to withdraw. The cities of Chino, Anaheim and Stanton had formed a joint powers authority to seek federal participation in such a study.

Chino Mayor Bob McLeod said that city planned to continue and had received inquiries from four other cities regarding the joining of the authority. These cities included one in Riverside County, two in Orange County and one in Los Angeles County.

Such a feasibility study is expected to cost $1 million, with two-thirds coming from the Federal Aviation Administration. For FAA funds to be made available, they must be requested by the city sponsors.

McLeod said he believed there is much misunderstanding about the feasibility report. "There is no commitment to the Chino Hills as an airport site. There is no intent to arrive at a decision for an airport site until the study has been completed."

Recent studies show a need for another airport in Southern California, he added, Sites have been proposed in San Diego and Riverside counties and in the Chino Hills.

The proposed study, he added, would include other proposed sites.

McLeod said it may take two or three years before information regarding an airport site is conclusive. "We expect to take six months before receiving a grant from the federal government. Then it may take two years to complete the study."

At present, the preliminary application is ready to be presented to the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) and the FAA.

The Chino Hills Airport Complex, Inc., a nonprofit group, seeks to build a jetport on 4,000 acres which straddle the Orange and San Bernardino county lines. The proposed site is four miles northeast of Yorba Linda and four miles southwest of Los Serranos.

Developers plan to build two 12,000-foot runways to handle commercial and general aviaition operations.

6 at training school found guilty of riot

ONTARIO — A West Valley Superior Court jury has found six Youth Training School wards guilty of a conspiracy to commit an assault on other wards during a July 9, 1973 racial riot. Another ward and a former YTS counselor were acquited.

The jury returned its verdict Thursday after 5½ days of deliberations in the court of Judge James Cunningham. The trial lasted more than two months.

The jury found YTS wards Marvin Kincy, Gregory McCloud, Bertram Arnett Rogers, Henry Jackson and Donald M. Candler, all Negroes, guilty of conspiracy to commit assault with a deadly weapon on a group of Caucasian wards in the racial incident.

Former YTS Counselor Stanley Wagstaff and ward Alvin Todd were found innocent of all charges.

In the incident eight wards were hospitalized, two of them Negroes.

Wagstaff was accused of allowing the wards to hide their weapons in a field outside the recreation yard of the living unit after the attack. But testimony by a defense witness showed that Wagstaff may not have opened the gate and had no part in the attack. None of the prosecution witnesses could remember Todd holding a weapon or attacking any ward.

Judge Cunningham ordered the six wards found guilty to return to the court on May 16 for sentencing.

MSAC employe group reduces salary request

WALNUT — A clerical error in the computation of the cost of living has forced a Mt. San Antonio College official to lower his sights on what classified employes should get in salary raises.

Eugene Curl, assistant business manager, had asked the Board of Trustee last week to grant a 12 per cent across-the-board pay raise to the college's 290 noncertificated employes.

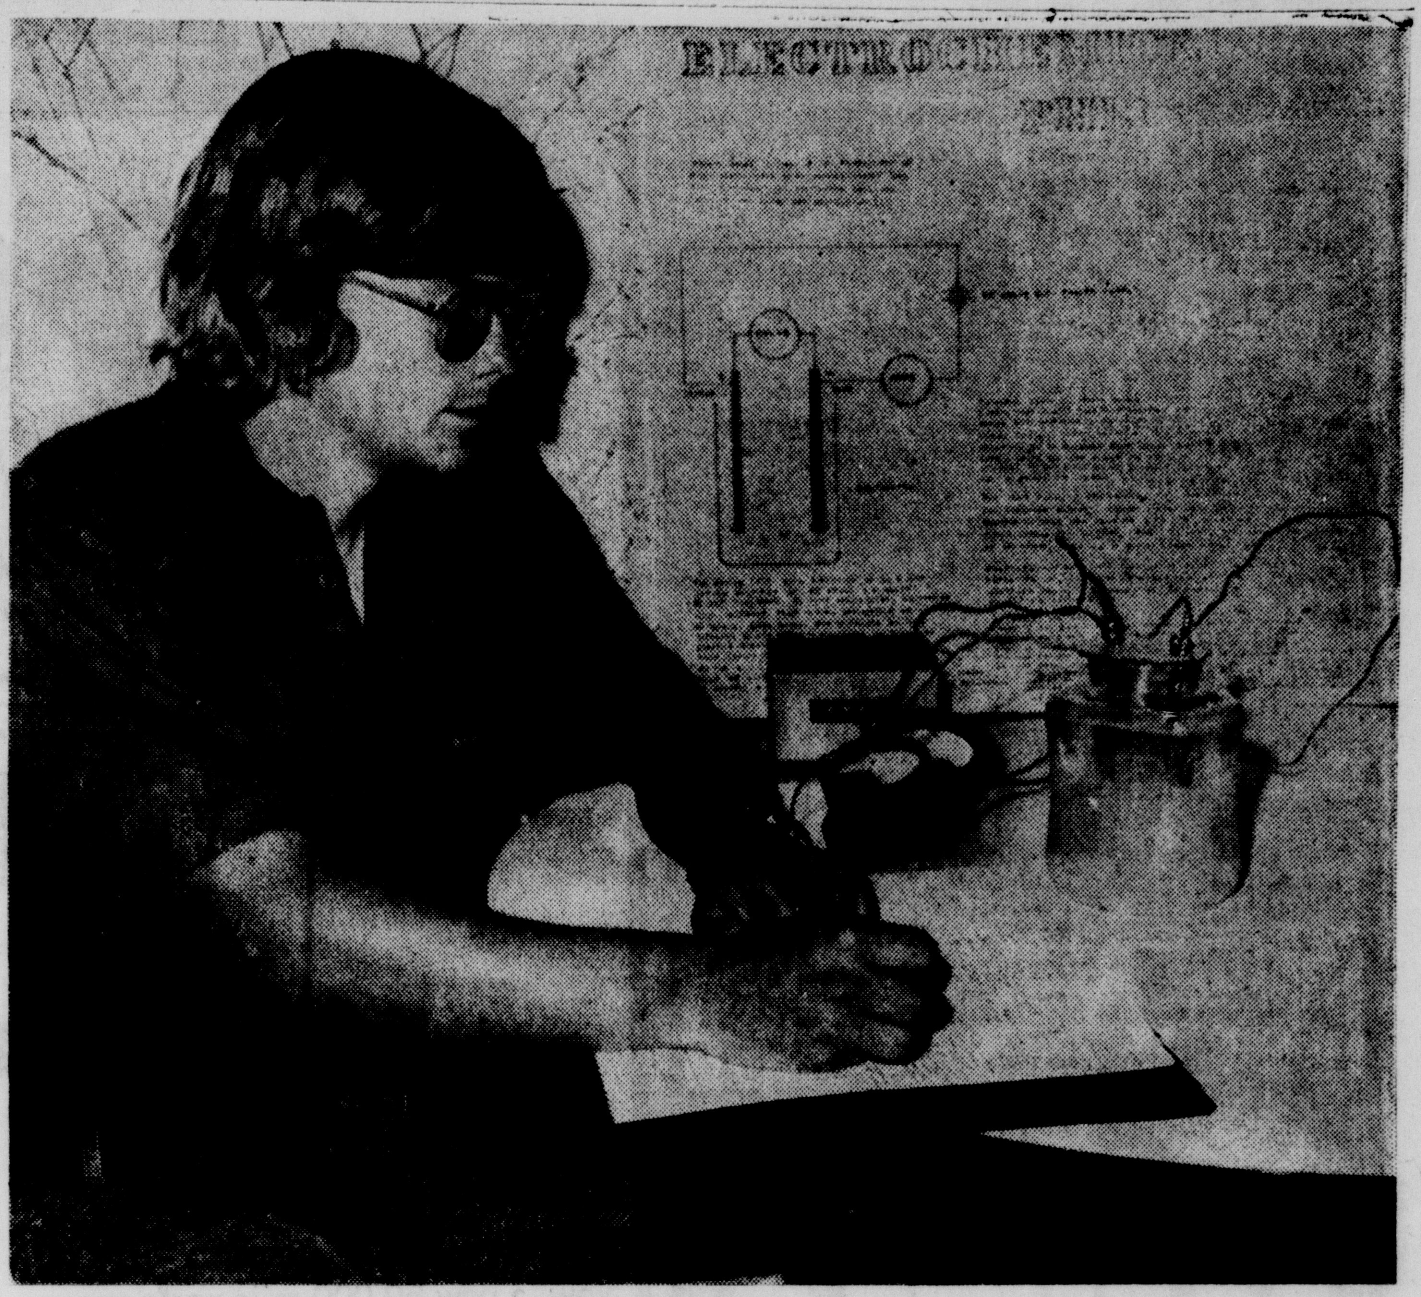
He said the request was based on cost of living index figures which showed expenses would go up at least 12 per cent by the end of the current fiscal year.

Curl says an error has been discovered, and now his figures show that the cost of living will go up about 9 per cent. He has sent a new proposal to the board, suggesting a 9 per cent raise.

Associations and unions which made separate bids for pay raises, however, are not making any revisions.

The teachers contend that their request was not based on Curl's figures but their own. They still ask a 12 per cent raise.

And leaders of groups representing the classified employes aren't changing their requests either. They say Curl's request was independent of their own. They still seek raises ranging from 12 to 16 per cent.



SALT WATER CONVERSION

Jeff Blaney, a Claremont High senior, checks his experiment of the "electrochemical phenomena of salt water." The experiment was awarded first prize in the high school's annual science fair. Blaney plans to seek higher honors in the annual county museum science fair.

Salt-water curiosity leads Claremont High student to science fair award

CLAREMONT — A Claremont High senior has used the salt water of Mission Bay in an electrochemical experiment which won him first place in the chemistry division of the annual high school fair.

Jeff Blaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Glaney Jr., 961 Richmond Drive, likes to travel on weekends with his family to San Diego where he can race across the sunny waters of Mission Bay. There he collected water samples.

Blaney ran electric house current through a transformer, an ammeter, and a volt meter and a copper plate on the positive pole. To the negative pole he attached a zinc plate. He inserted both poles into the salt water.

Sodium ions from the water went to the copper plate, and hydrogen gas bubbled from the zinc plate. Then a green powder called cupric oxide settled to the bottom, and a blue layer of cupric chloride formed along the surface of the water.

The idea of the experiment was to reveal electro chemical changes possible in salt water as opposed to fresh water.

Blaney said that he plans to sophisticate his experiment for entry in the annual competition at the county Museum of Science and Industry.

Carrying a 3.34-point average, Blaney is studying chemistry for the first time as a backup for his major in biology. He would like to major in medical biology and plans to go to Pomona College this fall.

Claremont High instructors have offered an incentive to those competing in the science fair. Placing or winning in the local fair gives a student an A for the quarter. Placing in the county museum competition gives a student an A for the semester.

Jeff's father is sales engineer for Aramco Steel Co. at La Habra. Jeff's mother is a secretary at Pomona College and professors there have encouraged him in hs work.

Jeff divides his time between studying, spending weekends with the family in racing an eight-foot sabot, a 13-foot laser, sailing a 36-foot sloop, skin diving, or working on gaining enough merit badges to earn his Eagle award in Troop 101.

As his Eagle project, Jeff has served as a teacher aide at Condit Elementary School, and also is tutoring Claremont High students in mathemaics, Algebra II and geometry.

Jeff likes the concept of the module system at Claremont High. "If you use your free time wisely, it can work out very well," he commented.

Second place in the chemistry division went to Mike Glass who experimented in caffeine. Kay Hodges took third with "surface tension." Carrie Banwell, and Shaif Mikhail were given honorable mention. Sharon Paul received a craftsmanship award.

Top ribbon in physics was awarded to Tom Banwell, who put together a simple data recording system. Clark Harris took second with "Match Rifle, How Precise?" Mary Myers received third place with an experiment in vibration measurement.

Scott Foresman and Gary Jenkins took honorable mention, and Jeff Kunselman received a craftsman award.

Melisa Salvato was award first place in bioloby with her experiment in "Electrophoresis of Serum Proteins". "Muscle Contractions" won for Cynthia Banwell a second place. Susan Phillips took third with "Antacids." Craig De-Wilde and Liz Weston were given honorable mentions, and Steven Tecotzksy a craftsmanship award.

Best of show went to Tom Banwell.

Cucamonga Channel project languishes

Solons add voices to plea for flood control funds

SAN BERNARDINO — County officials are gaining support in seeking federal funds to start improvements for the Cucamonga Channel drainage system which serves to protect the West End of San Bernardino County.

They seek to insert $3.2 million in the new federal budget to finance the first two mile section, which extends north from Prado Basin.

County Supervisor Robert Townsend said he enlisted support from U.S. Reps. Victor Veysey, R-43rd Dist., George Brown, D-38th Dist., and U.S. Sen. Alan Cranston.

Veysey is a member of the congressional appropriations committee, which will hear testimony April 30 and May 1 supporting the flood control project.

Townsend said he met Friday with Cranston in San Bernardino and outlined need for the project. "Cranston pledged his support and asked to be kept informed," said Townsend.

"When the application clears Veysey's Appropriations Committee, Cranston said he would carry this through the Senate," he added. "The senator said the county can count on his support."

Townsend said he also met with Brown, who also offered support when the application goes before the Appropriations Committee.

Art Sidler, county flood control director, will spend the two days in Washington to testify before the congressional committee, said Townsend.

The California Water Commission earlier had recommened $5 million be included in next year's fiscal budget for the project. This amount, however, was omitted from President Nixon's proposed budget.

County officals are seeking to have Congress insert the funds into the budget before its members give final approval.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers has completed construction designs and basic engineering needed to start construction. If funds are approved, work could begin next spring.

The Cucamonga Channel system, which includes Cucamonga Creek, Deer Canyon Creek and Demens Creek, is designed to carry storm water from the foothills above Upland and Alta Loma to the Prado Basin south of Chino—a distance of 14 miles.

The proposed project includes lining the channel with concrete walls and floors to better confine the run-off water. There will be some debris basins built at the mouth of these channels to prevent large rocks from entering and clogging the main channels.

Officials hope the initial federal allocation will prime further U.S. spending for the entire project. With a proper flow of funding, the entire project could be completed within five years, they added.

The channel work will also include construction of hiking and biking trails, rest areas, small parks and a system to divert some runoff water into spreading grounds for percolating back into the underground basin.

Crisis leads to bats in library

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Bats have taken up residence in the new undergraduate library at Stanford University because of the energy crisis.

School officials said Tuesday that fifth-floor windows were opened so the air conditioning system could be turned off to save electricity. The bats then made their entry.

Now the bats hang from the fire sprinkler heads in the ceilings.

Now, a new 50,000 mile performance champ:

World's first radial passenger tire with a steel belt & steel body

April 27th, a significant date in tire history.

The introduction of an unusual new kind of passenger car tire.

You should remember that you saw it first at 4day, and only at 4day.

Ten years from now all the majors will be plugging their own all-steel tire. All steel meaning a high performance tire that not only has a steel belt but also uses woven steel wire instead of fabric cords to form the casing itself.

This new tire is made for us by IRI in Louisville, Ky. The first new tire manufacturer in the US in nearly half a century.

For a starter, we've received our first shipment of 300 tires. That's about three sets for each of our 21 stores.

These first ones are in one size only. H78-15. It's a size that fits many station wagons and light trucks. Black sidewall only. How does it ride? Harsh or silky soft?

We'll tell you what we think and then let you tell us what you think.

We think it's the strongest tire you can buy, and yet it gives an unbelievably smooth ride. It's really a new experience in tire comfort, especially at speeds over 25 mph.

But we'd rather have you tell us what you think.
We'll sell every set with a two week trial.

If you like them, keep them. If not, bring them back, we'll remount your old tires,.and mail you a full refund.

That's a daring thing to do.
But then, this is a daring new tire.

More about the tire & its maker

Three years ago a determined and venturesome tire expert, George R Edwards, opened an unusual new kind of tire manufacturing plant in Louisville, called IRI, Inc. (International Rubber Industries).

His objective, to build the finest and most expensive passenger tire in existence.

The new company took advantage of the research, patents, equipment, chemical compounds, secret methods and tire expertise of Fabriken Bayer, a huge multi-billion dollar chemical and polymer supplier in Europe which has been doing extensive research for several years in its pilot plant in Cologne and used this opportunity to gain a foothold in the US market.

The new plant will produce only 300 tires a day, in the larger sizes. 4day will receive a substantial portion of this limited production.

The new IRI all-steel radial not only provides exceptional wear and road handling characteristics. The problem of accelerated wear in the outer ribs, common to most radial tires, is overcome by the single-ply body construction, with the same wire in body of the casing and the belt.

Also by reinforcing the casing directly below the beads with a turn-up of the radial steel cords, IRI has eliminated the radial tendency toward a sudden road holding break-away on high speed turns.

"Because we're interested only in the premium market," says Edwards, "everything we've put into this tire is the best money can buy. As little as 10c a tire can alter the production decisions of the majors because of their volume."

The new IRI radial will have a distinctive "stainless steel" colored sidewall, a treatment that sets this tire apart and dramatizes its all-steel construction. However, this first shipment includes black sidewalls only.

An expensive tire? Perhaps. But this new all-steel radial gives you more miles and more performance per dollar of price than any other tire you can buy.

Our 4day cut price for a 50,000 mile tire speaks for itself.

The first really all-steel radial

Steel belted radials contain woven steel "threads" only in the belt, under the tread.

This, so far as we know, is the first all-steel passenger car radial in history.

It employs only steel in the casing and belt construction. No fabric at all. The "fabric" is made of woven steel wire.

And just in case some purist says our all-steel tire isn't all-steel at all because it contains rubber compounds in the sidewalls and tread, he's right. This is an automobile tire, not a streetcar wheel.

Our two uses for numbered cones

We do our level best to take every customer in proper sequence.

That's why we immediately place a numbered cone on your car. It tells our men who's next.

However, when a customer drives in for the 5,000 mile inspection, it's a dirty trick for us to make him wait for the tires to be installed on the cars ahead of him. And then come out to inspect his tires, initial his guarantee, and send him on his way because his tires don't require rotation.

Can you blame him for not being happy with a 20 minute wait for a three-minute inspection?

Instead, he receives a numbered cone just as everyone else does. If he came in for the 5,000 mile inspection, a little tab is placed on the side of his cone. It says, "Inspection only".

Now, when one of our men is between installation jobs, the manager can spare him for three minutes to make the inspection.

If your tires are wearing properly, you can be on your way without a long wait at the end of the line, and without really inconveniencing those ahead of you.

However, if your tires do require rotation, we simply remove the "Inspection only" tab and you wait your regular turn, because rotation does take longer and it would be unfair to others for us to put your car on the hoist ahead of them.

You see, we try to be as efficient and as helpful as we can with every customer.

And now, you can help us. If you're asked to wait and you don't immediately get a numbered cone, just untie our man's shoelaces or something. We'd appreciate it.

Council seeking support for day of humiliation

Top officials of the Pomona Valley Council of Churches are urging the observance of National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer on Tuesday.

Dr. James W. Angell, president of the council, and Dr. G. Merrill Lenox, executive director, issued a joint appeal for the observance stating, "We hope every church and every individual will in some way observe this day which has been set aside by a proclamation from Congress."

The council officials called attention to a verse of scripture, II Chronicles 7:14, which reads, "If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins and will heal their land."

Ways to observe the day as suggested by the council include arranging special prayer groups, opening church buildings throughout the day for private prayer, and holding prayer sessions in homes, businesses, educational institutions and in other appropriate settings."

Council officials also urged individuals to "set aside time to join in repentance for personal and national transgressions and to seek God's forgiveness and continuing guidance in their lives."

The proclamation, as approved by Congress, reads:

"Whereas, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men to owe their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is Lord; and

"Whereas, we know that we have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown; but we have forgotten God; and

"Whereas, we have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own; and

"Whereas, intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us; and

"Whereas, we have made such an idol out of our pursuit of 'national security' that we have forgotten that only God can be the ultimate guardian of our true livelihood and safety; and

"Whereas, we have failed to respond, personally and collectively, with sacrifice and uncompromised commitment to the unmet needs of our fellow man, both at home and abroad; as a people, we have become so absorbed with the selfish pursuits of pleasure and profit that we have blinded ourselves to God's standard of justice and righteousness for this society; and

"Whereas, it therefore behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness: Now, therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, that the Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974, be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins."

Nuivita risked his life to aid Stendal in the analysis, since it is a crime punishable by death for a Kogi Indian to give language or cultural information to an outsider.

The remote Kogi tribe, numbering 4,000 people, was completely closed to outsiders until the Stendals visited in 1964.

Spending to aid housing

NEW YORK (UPI) — First National City Bank predicts stepped-up consumer spending will rescue the housing industry from its current economic doldrums.

Citibank economists Monday cited improvement in the January and February figures on housing starts as evidence of a recovery in the housing sector.

"The size of the funds that are flowing into the savings banks and the savings and loan associations suggests that a real boom in housing starts could get under way very shortly," said the bank's vice president, Alan Murray.

A better play for 6 spades

By Oswald & James Jacoby

As we have pointed out many times, there is nothing in the code word ARCH that involves talking to your partner. What it does involve is planning a trick one with the special emphasis on the "H" which stands for "How can I make my contract."

South ruffed the club lead in dummy and remarked. "Maybe we didn't bid enough." Then he led the king of trumps and another trumps.

At this point he stopped to think for the first time. You readers can see that a spade finesse followed by a heart to dummy and a second finesse will bring the slam home but at this point South visualized the possibility that West had started with three trumps to the queen. In that case the finesse would lose; West would lead his last trump and South would need a diamond finesse to come to 12 tricks.

South also saw that if he played his ace he would have the slam against any 3-2 trump break, so he played the ace and the hand collapsed.

If South had just asked, "How" at trick one he would have seen the really safe way to make six. He should lead a low trump at trick two and finesse right then and there. If the finesse lost there would still be enough trumps in dummy to allow a second club ruff. After it worked South would simply lead back to dummy's king; pick up the rest of the trumps and take his slam to the bank.

China may buy less U.S. food

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two successive years of good crops may result in a decline this summer in China's heavy purchases of American food and cotton, according to an Agriculture Department report.

China's record 1973 harvest has been followed by "reasonably good" prospects for a big 1974 crop. If the new crop turns out as expected, Chinese agricultural imports could drop from current record levels "and farm imports from the United States could be cut back somewhat."

Ragman acquitted of theft charges

MILAN, Italy (UPI — Picking up discarded packing materials outside a supermarket is no crime, a court has ruled.

It acquitted ragman Vincenzo Iannittelli of aggravated theft charges filed by a supermarket manager who said a wastepaper dealer had exclusive contract rights to the market's discarded cartons. Iannittelli, a father of nine, had spent 14 days in jail awaiting trial.

Four meet records fall at MSAC

By KEVIN CLOE
P-B Staff Writer

WALNUT — The first day of the 16th Annual Mt. San Antonio Relays was put to bed Friday night after a fairly quiet day.

However, four meet records were broken and one tied during the 12 hours of competition, which highlighted the colleges and high schools.

One of the four records was set by a hometown athlete — Dave Krogh of Mt. San Antonio College. Krogh, who had been consistently throwing the javelin over the 220-foot mark for the past two weeks, shattered the Relays record in his main event by hurling the spear 226 feet, 4 inches. His toss surpassed the old mark by a little over an inch, held by Frank Covelli of Cerritos from the 1961 Relays.

Dave Hamer, a pole vaulter from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, made a surprise appearance in the college invitational and reset the Relays record. He cleared 16 feet, 10 inches to bring down the previous mark of 15-8¼ by Dan Stebben of Occidental.

Then in the college-university 880 yard relay, Hamer's teammates from SLO established a new meet mark.

The quartet of Joe Prince, Curtis Boyd, Kerry Gold, and Clancy Edwards sprinted to a 1:24.7 clocking in the half. It surpassed the 1:25.9 mark set by the Unversity of Redlands in 1964.

The fourth record was set in the night competition during the high school action. Favored Willie Banks of Oceanside demolished the previous Relays' record in the triple jump by leaping 50 feet, 7¼ inches. It topped the old mark set two years ago by Xavier McAfee of San Diego of 45-11¼. Banks, who received ovations from the Relays' crowd all day, finieshed the day a double winner after winning the long jump at 24-1¼.

The West Los Angeles' invitational 440 yard relay team tied a Relays' mark in the junior college division when it flashed a 41.0 clocking.

MSAC's Krogh got the Mounties going in what turned out to be a pretty good day for the host school.

Before a full-day crowd of 4,500 fans, the Mounties won three of the eight junior college field events during the afternoon session. Along with Krogh's record-breaking victory in the javelin, triple jumper Stan Bland won his event with a leap of 47-11½ and high jumper Steve Miller beat Fullerton's Tony Madau at 6 foot, 10 inches on fewer misses.

What was supposed to be the big race Friday night turned into an upset. The open university distance medley relay saw Arizona State stun the Florida Track Club and UCLA, anchored by Upland High grad Gordon Innes, in a time of 9:43.2.

The top two high school events scheduled for Friday night produced one disappointment and one expected finish.

The disapointment came when pole vaulter Mike Tulley of Long Beach Milliken passed at previous heights and then failed in his three attempts at 15-0. Brain Goodman of Agoura eventually won the event at 14-6.

Ralph Serna of Loara did just what most people thought he would do, win the invitational mile relay. Serna didn't go nine minutes, though, clocking a 9:03.8.

On the local scene, Chino had an exceptional night. The Cowboys grabbed four victories, with three of those coming from the short distance relays.

Chino won its races in the 440, 880 and mile relays, and high jumper Joey Langarica took a first at 6 feet, 2 inches.

Ganesha also had a big night with three wins, one of them being Charles Stewart's victory in the 180 low hurdles in 19.6 seconds.

Montclair won a mile relay event in 3:24.4, while Pomona's Arthur Hodges tied for first in a long jump event with a leap of 21 feet, 1¾ inches. He tied with Matt Fadden from La Puente Wilson High.

Cal Poly enjoyed some success during the afternoon session, as the Broncos claimed a first and two seconds.

Emory Montgomery led the Broncos parade of winners by taking the first place in the triple jump at 49 feet, 3 inches.

Citrus had the same kind of success, claiming two firsts and three seconds, but in the junior college division.

Owl high jumper Mike Brown took first place in his flite of high jump at 6-7½.

Willie McLaurin gave Citrus its frist victory of the day when he captured the 120 yard high hurdles at 14.9 seconds.

Aaron's slam breaks record

ATLANTA (UPI) — Home run champion Hank Aaron broke another record Friday night when he hit his 15th major league grand slam homer in a game between Atlanta and Chicago.

Aaron's homer, which gave the Braves a 7-3 lead in the seventh, moved him one ahead of Gil Hodges and Willie McCovey for the most grand slams hit in the National League. The major league record is 23, held by Lou Gehrig.

Chambliss to Yankees in big swap

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Yankees Friday completed a seven-player trade with the Cleveland Indians that sent starting pitchers Fritz Peterson and Steve Kline to the Tribe in exchange for first baseman Chris Chambliss and righthander Dick Tidrow.

In addition to Peterson and Kline, both of whom slumped badly last season, the Yankees also gave up relievers Fred Beene and Steve Buskey, while Cleveland sweetened the pot with reliever Cecil Upshaw.

Peterson, a 20-game winner for the Yankees in 1970, was the key man in the trade as far as the Indians were concerned, even though the crafty lefthander dropped to an 8-15 last season and had lost his job in the starting rotation this year.

Peterson, 32, was involved in a wife-swapping episode with teammate Mike Kekich in spring training in last season and had been the subject of trade talks ever since. Peterson had appeared in only three games so far this season and had a 4.70 ERA with no record. The Yankees sold Kekich to the Indians last year, but he is no longer with the club.

HE BROKE IT UP

Chambliss rips Angels

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Chris Chambliss drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double to cap a four-run seventh inning Friday night and give the Cleveland Indians a 4-3 victory over the California Angels.

California starter Nolan Ryan, who set 18 personal records in 1973, had a two-hitter and a 3-0 lead until the Indians sent the hard-throwing righthander to the showers in the seventh with his third loss in five decisions this year.

Leron Lee and Dave Duncan walked to open the seventh and pinch-hitter George Hendrick fanned. John Lowenstein beat out an infield hit to fill the bases and Jack Brohamer bounced a single off second baseman Denny Doyle's glove to score Lee. Chambliss followed by slicing a double down the leftfield line and Dick Selma replaced Ryan and retired the side.

Chargers fined $40,000

NEW YORK (UPI) — General Manager Harland Svare of the San Diego Chargers has been fined $5,000 and placed on probation and eight of his players also were fined and disciplined by the National Football League for drug-related violations, it was announced Friday.

The players were fined between $1,000 and $3,000 and placed on probationary status for violations occurring at the Chargers' training site and, in some cases, during the regular season as well, according to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The total fines against Svare, the players and the club amounted to $40,000.

The players who were penalized are: David Jones and Tim Rossovich, $3,000 each; Coy Bacon, Dave Costa and Jerry LeVias, $2,000 each; and Rick Redman, Walt Sweeney and Bob Thomas, $1,000 each.

Svare was disciplined for "failure to exercise proper supervisory controls over activities of the players and others having entree to the football operation."

In addition, the San Diego team was fined $20,000, a sum equal to the total amount of all the individual fines "for supervisory omissions by its administrative staff."

In a prepared statement, Rozelle stated: "This disregard for NFL drug policies was first brought to our attention by reports that some Charger players felt the situation was having an extremely adverse effect on the football team."

An investigation conducted by the NFL included interviews with approximately 50 persons.

According to the announcement, "player fines were predicated both on degree of individual involvement and on their subsequent awareness of the detrimental effects such actions have on professional football."

Rozelle further stated that the levels of discipline imposed on players and management should not be considered as standards for future misconduct of this nature, but rather in light of the relatively recent strengthening of the league's drug policies last June.

Dodgers best in West, best in baseball (14-5)

By BILL LANGLEY
P-B Sports Editor

LOS ANGELES — The best in the West is now the best in baseball.

The Los Angeles Dodgers enjoyed an easy 7-1 win over the Montreal Expos Friday night to take the first meeting of the Dodger Stadium weekend series between the National League division leaders.

Andy Messersmith pitched a neat three-hitter and helped his own cause with a single and double to lead the Dodgers to their fourth straight win.

The victory over the high-flying Expos gives Los Angeles a 14-5 season record — the best in baseball — to jump to a three-game lead in the National League West. Montreal remains two games on top in the East at 9-4.

L.A. scored an early knockout on Montreal starter Steve Renko by scoring five runs in the first inning to delight the 30,028 fans.

With that type of an early cushion, Messersmith was able to breeze to his second win of the season.

Messersmith was in command all the way in allowing only three walks while striking out seven.

His complete-game victory was the third in-a-row for the Dodgers, who seem to be at their best in playing the Eastern teams.

Montreal, a team averaging 6.8 runs per game entering the L.A. series, was able to score only on Ron Fairly's home run to lead off the fifth inning.

Messersmith got into trouble later in the inning when Montreal's Barry Foote singled with two outs. The Dodger righthander momentarily lost his control by walking pitcher John Montague and Ron Hunt to load the bases.

But Messersmith got Tim Foli on an infield grounder for the third out without further damage. He then retired 12 of the final 13 Montreal batters in easy fashion to finish the way he started. Foli singled with one out in the fourth inning to break the spell of 10 consecutive outs at the beginning of the game.

"It was nice to get those five runs in the first inning," Messersmith said. "I've been pitching rather poorly in the late innings lately. Montreal is a different ballclub when it is behind like that. They do things entirely differently in a one-run game."

Messersmith said he got some "help" from relief pitcher Mike Marshall, the former Expo fireman, in his pitch to Fairly. "I had a good scouting report on Montreal. Marshall went over the club and said that Fairly was a good fastball hitter. I gave him a good fastball down the middle — Haa!," Messersmith said.

Ex-Dodger captain Willie Davis was one of Messersmith's victims. Willie D, who received a mixture of cheers and jeers in his return to L.A., popped up twice, struck out and flied out in his four at bats.

Messersmith, who is batting .500 with hits in all five games, drove in the final run of the first inning and belted a solid double in the sixth.

Catcher Steve Yeager is also hitting at a .500 clip after driving in two runs in the first with a single and knocking in a third in the seventh with a double which fell between three Montreal fielders.

Three walks, Davey Lopes' tenth stolen base of the season, and run-scoring singles by Roy Cey and Willie Crawford started the first-inning explosion, with the hits by Yeager and Messersmith finishing Renko.

Bill Buckner' triple scored Lopes with a sixth run in the fourth inning.

DODGER DATA — Al Downing (0-2) will face Montreal sensation Steve Rogers (3-0) in today's 1:15 p.m. contest . . . Jim Wynn had to leave the game in the fifth inning because of a pulled muscle . . . the Dodgers have equaled their L.A. record of 14 wins in April with four games remaining this month.

Montclair errors cost game, SAL lead

Claremont High solved a problem that has plagued the San Antonio League since the season started.

The Wolfpack, behind the seven-hit pitching of John Huddleston and two unearned runs nipped Montclair 2-1 in eight innings and knocked the Cavaliers from a co-leadership in the league standings.

In other action, Bonita and Walnut scored easy Hacienda League wins while Rowland edged Azusa 2-1 in 10 innings in a Montview League tilt and Redlands nipped Chaffey 2-1 in Citrus Belt play.

Montclair's Mike Medeiros walked Huddleston on a 3-2 count with the bases loaded to force across the winning run in Friday's extra inning upset.

Tony Janusz collected his second hit for the game to lead off the bottom of the eighth. Kent Stalwick reached first on an error by shortstop Pat Proulx and Rich Tullis walked to load the bases.

Medeiros (5-3, 3-1) looked like he'd pitch out of the jam when he got Ken McCloud on a shadow fly to left and struck out Dave Allen.

But the fourth wide one to Huddleston gave Claremont the run and the win, their fourth in 10 SAL decisions.

Harold Drake struck out nine and allowed just one hit as Bonita blanked Royal Oak 7-0 and held on to its two-game edge over Alta Loma, which routed Sierra Vista 7-1, in the Hacienda League standings.

Drake (3-1 overall and 3-0 in league) had a no-hitter going until Bob Legind singled to lead off the sixth inning, only to be erased on a double play.

Drake also collected two hits and drive in three runs to lead the offense. Bruce McNaught was two-for-two with a walk and reached base when he was hit by a pitch and Rick Ortega added an RBI single.

Walnut sent 18 men to the plate in the second inning and scored 14 runs before the dust settled en route to a 20-5 rout of San Dimas.

Mike Pfeil went four-for-four with two RBI's to pace the Mustang 20-hit attack. Mark Canavan contributed three hits, including a second-inning grand slam home run, while driving in seven runs. Jim Vallandingham pitched five innings to notch his second win and helped his own cause with two hits and three RBI's including a solo homer.

Brad Wright had two hits and drove in a run while Keith MacDermott went two-for-three, drove in two runs and pitched three innings.

Ray Etchebarren singled home Rick Camacho in the top of the 10th inning to give Rowland a 2-1 win over Azusa.

Al Emeterio went the initial seven innings bdfore winning pitcher David Bourque entered to hurl the final three frames. They combined for a five-hitter.

Azusa loaded the bases with no outs in the bottom of the 10th but Bourque struck out a batter and got a game-ending double play.

Redlands came up with an unearned run in the bottom of the fifth inning to nip Chaffey 2-1 and hand the Tigers their third straight loss.

The loss drops Chaffey into second place in the CBL with a 7-3 ledger (14-6 overall).

Anthony Munoz suffered the heartbreaking setback despite a four-hitter.

Chaffey's lone run came in the first on a Rod Weigand double, steal of third and Alan Lupinetti's RBI single.

Iles pitching, Damien errors give Scots first place in SAL

By CRAIG TRAVIS
P-B Staff Writer

LA VERNE — Damien coach Matt Kolodge said prior to Friday's Damien-Upland crucial, "the team that takes advantage of the other's mistakes will win."

The Spartan skipper was right.

Steve Iles allowed just five hits in one of his better outings of the year while his Upland teammates scored three unearned runs in the first inning en route to a 6-1 win over host Damien.

Mistakes played a dominant role in moving Upland into the San Antonio League lead.

While three Spartan fielding errors, their 17th, 18th and 19th in the past two games, were staking the Scots to four first inning runs, Claremont scored a pair of unearned runs and made them stand up as the Wolfpack edged Montclair 2-1 in eight innings.

The Upland win, coupled with the Cavalier setback, gives the Highlanders a 9-1 ledger and a one-game lead over Montclair, which holds an 8-2 slate.

The Spartan-Highlander clash was billed as a pitcher's duel between Larry Pekarcik, 8-1 on the season and 5-1 in league with an 0.69 earned run average, and Iles, who entered the affair with a 5-1 overall mark and 4-0 against SAL opponents with a 1.12 ERA.

Dale Arneson and Steve Smith started things rolling with back-to-back one-out singles, Arneson taking third. Pekarcik then uncorked a wild pitch allowing Arneson to score the first Upland run.

Russ Feaster walked and Stu DuVall lifted a routine fly to center that Dan Monroe appeared to lose in the sun. The ball, hit right to him, bounded off his glove and permitted Smith to score. Feaster advanced to third asd DuVall took second.

Tony Votaw hit a ground ball through third baseman Dean Sickles' legs, for an error, allowing Feaster to score. DuVall scored on the same play when the return throw from the outfield was dropped by Bill Karr.

"This was a great win for us," said Upland coach Herb Christian. "Steve (Iles) was really throwing hard and well. For that matter, the team played real well."

"You never know what to expect from a team after a game like their (Damien) last one,'' continued Christian. "It's important to get to these hard throwers before they find their rhythm and we got Pekarcik before he got loosened up."

The loss, Damien's second straight and fourth in 10 league decisions (15-6 overall), virtually knocks them from any hopes of a SAL title.

With four games left the Spartans trail Upland by three games.

Upland (15-4 overall) added a run in the fourth on a walk, single and Smith's scoring fly ball. Votaw doubled home Feaster for the final run in the fifth inning.

The Spartans' lone run came in the seventh inning after two were out.

Gerard Piccioni doubled, and moved to third when Arneson booted Andy Silvera's ground ball. Pekarcik, who had two straight hits, walked to load the bases and Karr was hit by an Iles fast ball to force across the run.

Ganesha edges Vikings in 12th

By JOHN KEEPERS
P-B Correspondent

POMONA — Ganesha High, led by pitching ace Ruben Ruiz, went all the way to the seventh inning with a shutout and then caught fumbleitis, letting Garey score three times to tie the game and put it into extra innings before the Giants could finally pull it out in the 12th, 5-4.

Ruiz, who went the full distance, allowed only two hits in the regulation seven innings, but saw his second baseman, Paul Madirgal, commit three errors in the final stanza.

With one out, Doug Broyles and Tom Hosack both hit consecutive ground balls to second base and both got on safely. Ordinarily, the game would have been over at this point, but Garey was still alive.

John Andrzejewski then walked to load the bases setting up an RBI situation for Pete Mendez who cashed in one with a ground out to third. This made the score 3-1 in favor of Ganesha with two outs.

Then came the third and most disastrous error by Madrigal. Andy Pedraza hit a soft tapper directly to the second baseman. With plenty of time, he hesitated a bit too long and his throw went in the dirt. First baseman Dan Houck couldn't dig it out and it got past him as both runs scored to tie the game at three.

Neither team could get anything going until the 11th when Garey broke the deadlock with two outs. Andrzejewski walked and then was knocked in by Mendez's double which got by the diving left fielder, Ralph Dudley.

But the Giants came up in their home half of that inning to remain in the game after Dave Pedroza got on due to an error. He was then removed for a pinch runner, Jim Lacey, who moved to second on Jerry Ankeney's sacrifice bunt, went on to third during Madrigal's tapper to first, and was knocked in by a clutch single by Tracy Cowger.

Ganesha won it the next inning when Ruiz, who went three for five with two RBIs, singled and made it around to third where he was knocked in by Ankeney to end a long afternoon.

Allin rips La Costa for commanding lead

RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (UPI) — Little Buddy Allin took apart the tough La Costa Country Club for the second straight day Friday, shooting a three under par 69 to grab a commanding four shot lead with a 36-hole total of 135 after two rounds of the $200,000 Tournament of Champions.

The former Army lieutenant, bidding for his fourth PGA tour victory and second of the year, had five birdies and two bogeys in his 34-35 card over the 6,855-yard La Costa layout to widen his first day margin of one stroke.

"When you put two rounds like this together," Allin said, "you feel a lot better. But I shot some high scores on this course before and those rounds are still haunting me.

"There are some tough holes out there and there's still two more days to play."

Tied for second behind Allin's nine under par total were Miller Barber and Gene Littler at 139. Barber had a second round 70 while Littler carded a 69 Friday.

Deadlocked at 140, four under par, was the twosome of John Mahaffey, with a second - round 70 and John Schroeder, with a 69.

Lanny Wadkins, who seemed to be on his way to a comeback Thursday after missing the cut in three straight tournaments, shot a 74 and fell to sixth place at 141. Wadkins had a 67 Thursday.

Allin, 29, of Santa Barbara, Calif., wasn't in a predicting mood despite his second consecutive sub-par round.

Jack Nicklaus won here last year with a 72-hole total of 276, 12 under par.

"I'm not going to predict the winning score," the 5-9, 133 pound redhaired Allin said.

Devils hold on, edge Chino 3-2

By MARK GRIP
P-B Correspondent

POMONA — An enthused Pomona High team scored three times in the first inning and fought off a futile Chino comeback to post a 3-2 win in a San Antonio League baseball game Friday afternoon.

Jim Price opened the Pomona first with a double down the leftfield line, and went to third when Chino hurler Mike Coppess fielded Mike Forsyth's sacrifice bunt and bobbled it, allowing Price to take third and Forsyth to reach first base.

Forsyth stole second and went to third on John Souza's single to right field which drove in Price and sent Forsyth to third base. Souza stole second and went to third when Coppess' pitch hit the plate and bounced to the screen allowing Forsyth to score from third.

Souza scored on the next play on Mike Wooten's ground out to the second baseman. A pop out and a ground out ended the inning with Pomona leading 3-0.

Chino stranded 11 base runners before scoring solo runs in the sixth and seventh innings.

Mark Milton reached first to open the top of the sixth, when Pomona shortstop John Schaeffer couldn't find the handle on his ground ball. After a pop out, Richard Reyburn forced Milton at second.

Reyburn went in to score and Derryberry continued on to second.

Stan Surina, batting for Coppess, singled to left and Derryberry rounded third and headed for home. Forsyth's throw beat him for the final out.

The Cowboys made their final run at the Devils in the seventh. After pinch hitter Don Stone singled, John Wieman replaced Jeff Brackey on the mound for Pomona.

After a strikeout and a wild pitch Scott Richartz hit a grounder to Schaeffer at short. Instead of going for the batter Schaeffer threw to third and hit the runner (Stone) in the back. Stone scored later on a fielder's choice.

The win was Brackey's first in league competition, while the lankey Wieman picked up a save. The loss drops Coppess' league ledger to 1-2.

Such A Rush debuts today in H.P. Inglewood Stakes

INGLEWOOD — H. R. Miller's Such A Rush, one of the west's best two-year-olds in 1973, makes his long-awaited sophomore debut today in the $30,000 added Inglewood Stakes at Hollypwood Park.

The Inglewood, the first stakes ever contested at the distance of six and one-half furlongs at Hollywood Park, also attracted Debonair Stakes winner Shirley's Champion — Debonair runner-up Blue Eyed Davy, Baldwin Stakes victor Battery E., Wedge Shot, the hero of last year's prestigious Belmont Futurity — and Golden Gate Fields, invader Rocket Review, a consistent threat in stakes company on the northern California circuit.

Miradero, Little Ify, Back toting 121 pounds under the alround out the field.

Such A Rush, a son of the quick sprinter My Lark, finished second in the '73 Hollywood Juvenile Championship, then proceeded to capture four stakes including the rich Del Mar Futurity. The Dale Landers-trained colt, who earned more than $150,000 as a juvenile, will be ridden by Bill Shoemaker while totir& 121 pounds under the allowance conditions of the race.

Shirley's Champion, a rapidly improving son of Noholme II and former distaff star Nevada Marga, scored in 1.08 3-5 when nosing out Blue Eyed Davy in the Debonair. Shirley's Champion will carry 117 pounds and jockey Howard Grant.

Blue Eyed Davy was the solid choice when upset by Shirley's Champion, and might have won had he not "pulled himself up when he got the lead," according to Grant, who rode the colt in the Debonair. Don Pierce has the call on the viking spirit colt for the Inglewood and he's in with 114.

Battery E., a grass loving son of Don B., is fresh from a game victory in the Baldwin Stakes at Santa Anita ower the downhill turf course. Battery E. will have the services of leading rider Laffit Pincay, jr. and will shoulder 121 pounds.

West won't quit, signs Laker pact

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jerry West will be back with the NBA Lakers again next season and that is bad news for the rival ABA's hopes of signing Bill Walton.

West, who was hampered by a pulled abdominal muscle much of last season and missed 51 games, signed a new contract Thursday to return to the Lakers for his 15th season.

No terms were announced but it was believed the former West Virginia University star signed for about the same salary he received last season in the second year of a $600,000 two-year contract.

The signing dispelled rumors that West would retire at the end of this season and at the same time killed ABA hopes to put a team in Los Angeles built around Walton, the UCLA star center, and coached by West.

Portland has the NBA draft rights to Walton and his adviser, Sam Gilbert, said Walton will announce his decision sometime next week.

Walton has said he wants to play his pro career in Los Angeles and also was reported as wanting to play on a West-coached team.

West signed the contract on the 15th green of the Bel Air Country Club course where he was golfing, after he talked with Lakers' owner Jack Kent Cooke by telephone. Cooke was in New York.

"I expect that Jerry will play at least a few more years," Cooke said, "and when his playing career has come to a fruitful close he will continue to be a valuable and working member of the Laker organization."

"There are no set years involved in the contract," said Lakers lawyer Allan Rothenberg. "It's open-ended and for as long as Jerry wants to play with some provisions for being with the Lakers after his playing days are over."

West said the decision to sign was "a spur-of-the-moment thing. In the long run I think it was the fact that I've been with the Lakers 14 years and there was some loyalty on both sides.

"I had a very attractive offer from some other people (the ABA) but playing basketball is the thing I know best."

West, who will be 36 May 28, has been with the Lakers since the franchise moved here from Minneapolis in 1960.

He missed five weeks in mid-season and shortly after he returned to the lineup was injured again, missing the rest of the season. He made a token appearance against Milwaukee in the opening playoff series in the only game the Lakers won against the Bucks.

Friends said West didn't want to end his career as an injured player, thus his decision to play at least one more season.

Sports parade

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dick Allen's three-year contract with the Chicago White Sox is the best in baseball. Good as it is, it doesn't match Larry Csonka's new one though. Csonka gets more money. Allen gets more knocks.

It's always a source of discomfort to Chuck Tanner, the White Sox manager, when anybody knocks Dick Allen, his $675,000 first baseman. They take pot shots at Allen for many different reasons—for not being there every day in spring training, for not always showing up at the ball park three hours before the game, and for not always being willing to sit down and make small talk.

Generally speaking, those who knock Dick Allen the most know him least.

Chuck Tanner probably knows Dick Allen as well as anyone in baseball. He knows him since he was a kid shooting baskets in junior high school and his affection for Dick Allen, as a human being as well as a ballplayer, is genuine.

Some people already are tying the White Sox' slow start in the American League West to a similar start by Dick Allen.

Points out details

Chuck Tanner hears something like that and immediately wishes to point out some pertinent little details about both the White Sox and Dick Allen.

"Let's see," he said, studying the team's stats' sheet before Wednesday night's ball game with Milwaukee, "Allen is hitting .214, and leads our ball club in rbi's and bases on balls. They never give him anything good to him. I mean NEVER. Everytime he walks up there, they pitch to him like it's the seventh game of the World Series.

"He has hit six shots, just punished the baseball, but each one of these line drives was right at some infielder or outfielder. If those balls would've fallen in, he'd be hitting .270 or .280."

Chuck Tanner didn't have his ready calculator with him, otherwise he would've discovered that had those six shots of Allen's found some holes, he'd be hitting .321, not .270 or .280.

"Why should Dick Allen be singled out?" asked the White Sox manager. "Look at Amos Otis. He put in a full spring training; he's having trouble getting out of the gate; he's hitting .135, but you know he'll get straightened out and have a good year. Johnny Bench is another one. He has four rbi's as of today and he's hitting .217, but he's going to be in the All-Star Game. Look, Dick Allen could hit .190 all year and play for me.

Just nonsense

"That business of him not being there for all of spring training is nonsense also. Frank Robinson had only seven official at bats in spring training for the California Angels, so what? He's still one of the greatest players in baseball. Mike Marshall said he had his own way of getting ready and wasn't going to do any running in spring training. The Dodgers told him 'you have a good track record, go ahead and do it your own way.'

"Listen, people simply don't know Dick Allen. He's like everybody else. He has two arms, two legs and he has a heart. He has feelings just like you and, me. He's a dedicated individual who stays in shape 12 months a year. People think he keeps to himself and is a loner. Maybe that's the way he is on the outside, but you ought to see him inside the clubhouse. He helps the young ballplayers. He has been instrumental in the improvement of Jorge Orta, our second baseman.

"Nobody's ever going to hurt Dick Allen as long as I'm manager," Chuck Tanner went on. "I'll never trade him, he's always going to play for me and when he's through, he'll walk into the Hall of Fame. They talk about his hitting. Why, he's one of the best base runners who ever played this game. He reminds me of Joe DiMaggio in that regard. Ever see Joe run bases? Ever see anyone run them better? Dick Allen runs them the same way."

NFL coaches facing rougher decisions

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National Football League created an unexpected dividend in the stunning package of rules changes it approved this week.

Monday mornings now may become even livelier than Sunday afternoons.

That became obvious Friday as head coaches reconciled themselves to living with the new rules, most of which will force those coaches to make tougher decisions than they are used to making —and certainly will result in more second-guessing, too.

No longer is the field goal automatic. Nor the decision to punt either, since the chance of a return is so much greater. And playing for a tie? That's gonna be tough since if you're tied, you have to play another quarter to try and break the tie.

All of the changes were designed to hypo the offense, and because of that, immediate, strong disapproval came from some of the league's most successful coaches whose teams are built on solid defenses.

Miami's Don Shula and Washington's George Allen were among the most outspoken. Allen said the league had brought back everything except the flying wedge.

Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll claimed the owners, who vote on the rules, were "tinkering too much with the basic rules of the game."

The coaches don't like to be second-guessed, but there will probably be more of it this year than ever before.

Say, for example, it's 4th and 2 on your opponent's 32. In the past, it was a relatively routine field goal shot from the 39. Now it becomes a 49-yard kick, and if it's missed, the other team gets the ball at the 32 instead of the 20. Last year, only 39.5 per cent of the field goal attempts in the 40-49 yard range were successful. Do you still try the field goal, punt for the corner, or go for the first down?

Or if it's late in a tie game, do you settle for the tie —and thereby risk losing the game if the other team should win the coin flip at the start of overtime and score on its first possession —or gamble for the winning score right now?

The whole punting game is changed, too, because of the greater possibility of returns now that the players on the kicking team can't cross the line of scrimmage until the ball actually is kicked. An obvious solution would be to try to kick the ball out of bounds, but most coaches will tell you that accuracy declines greatly when you try to punt to a specific point on the sideline.

The NFL decided it was time for drastic rules revisions because field goals rose by 65 and touchdown passes dropped by 49 over a four-year period.

Here are some facts affecting the new rules:

Field goals—The real long ones almost certainly will become a thing of the past. Last year there were 152 field goal attempts from the 40-yard line and beyond. These now would become 50-yard-plus kicks. Few coaches would be willing to risk them, knowing they would surrender good field position if missed. The 1973 figures:

Yards	Made	Att
0-19	158	164
20-29	140	181
30-39	145	226
40-49	90	228
50-beyond	10	62

Punt returns—Barely 50 per cent of all punts in the NFL were returned last year. The rest either were fair catches or kicked out of bounds or through the end zone. The average, 8.1 yards per return, is expected to rise significantly in 1974.

Kickoffs—The rule moving kickoffs back five yards, to the 35, might not have much impact on the kickoff return itself but will start the offense out in better field position, which is one of the league's ideas—get more offense in the game. Last year approximately 75 per cent of all kickoffs were returned.

Broncos fall to Matadors

NORTHRIDGE — Cal Poly's California Collegiate Athletic Association baseball fortunes continued on the unlucky side Friday, as the Broncos dropped a wild 11-9 contest to Cal State Northridge.

The host Matadors built up a commanding 10-3 lead after six innings and survived a six-run explosion by Poly in the eighth to post the win.

Vic Bernal, victim of most of the CSN damage, absorbed the loss for the Broncos.

The Cal Poly comeback attempt in the eighth was spearheaded by Steve Herter's two-run homer, but the Broncs came up one short of overtaking the Matadors.

The win dropped Poly's again today in a doubleheader at the Bronco diamond. Northridge is attempting to overtake CS Fullerton in the CCAA staindings, and received a boost Friday as UC Riverside beat the Titans 2-1.

Bill Shoemaker in good spot to take Hollypark features

INGLEWOOD — Bill Shoemaker, already a winner of more than 600 stakes races during his brilliant career, stands an excellent chance to add two more to his total this weekend at Hollywood Park.

Such A Rush, one of California's top youngsters in 1973, will make his three-year-old debut under Shoemaker today in the $30,000 Inglewood Stakes and Sunday Shoe will come back with Linda's Chief in the $30,000 Caballero Handicap.

Both horses figure to be well played by Hollypark patrons in "Super Sweep" and "Sunday Sweep", the $132,0000 handicapping contests that continue this weekend. Bonus money in "Sunday Sweep", for anyone tabbing all nine winners, is now up to $15,000.

Such A Rush was runner-up in last summer's Hollywood Juvenile championship and then captured the rich Del Mar Futurity. He finished his two-year-old campaign with earnings in excess of $150,000.

Ready to challenge him in the Inglewood, to be raced at six and one-half furlongs for the first time, are a quartet of stakes-winning sophomores including the victor in the Debonair Stakes last week, Shirley's Champion.

Battery E., triumphant in Santa Anita's Baldwin Stakes earlier this month; Rocket Review, who gained his stakes brackets in Northern California; and Wedge Shot, winner of the prestigious Belmont Futurity as a two-year-old, also will be in the Inglewood starting lineup.

Linda's Chief, something of a disappointment this year, will carry top weight of 123 pounds as he bids for his first 1973 tally in the mile and one-sixteenth Caballero. He was a fast-finishing third in the Premiere Handicap opening day at Hollypark.

Finalista, whose 1:33 4-5 mile clocking two years ago ranks as one of racing's fastest-ever miles, and Expression, a three-time winner at Hollywood Park in 1973, are regarded the horses most likely to upset Linda's Chief.

Mt. Sac Aquatics win swim honors

WALNUT — This month ends the "short course" season for AAU swimmers. From now until August, competitive meets will be held at "long course" metered pools.

The Mt. Sac Aquatics Club wound up the season by swimming almost every weekend this month. Starting with the Older Jr. Olympics, where the teams 13 to 17 year old "A" swimmers were matched against the best in the SPA, the team placed eighth in overall competition.

Medalists at the Older Jr. Olympics included: Monte Preston, fourth, 50 yd. freestyle; Dottie Hooter, seventh, 100 yd. butterfly and seventh in the 200 yd. fly.

That same weekend, the younger swimmers on the team, starting at age 5, attended the B-C meet sponsored by the Azusa-Glendora Swim Club. This was also an "A" meet form 7 and 8-year-olds. A total of 11 medals were won by this age group. Top winners were Bill Breitenberger and Susan D'louhy.

Then this past weekend, a rare opportunity for the entire team to swim at the same time was offered by the ABC Relay and Sprinters Invitational sponsored by the Upland Aquatics Club. The Mt. Sac Marlins won over 200 medals, which gave them the commanding lead of this Eastern Section meet.

Portland signs two players

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The Portland Storm of the World Football League Wednesday signed two more players, including defensive tackle Ron Billingsley, a seven-year National Football League veteran.

Billingsley, 29, was the first round draft choice of the San Diego Charters out of Wyoming in 1967. He will be eligible to play for Portland in 1975.

He played in 62 games for the Chargers and was traded to New Orleans in 1973.

Three over 100

The Winnipeg Jets became the first major league team to have three players with over 100 points. Bobby Hull and Norm Beaudin all had 103 and Chris Bordeleau scored 101 points. All three played on the same line.

Stags visit Oxy, 'Hens host Leos

The pressure will really be on Claremont-Mudd's baseball team today.

The Stags (9-1) travel to Eagle Rock to play two games with Occidental (6-4). Bill Arce's team will probably need a sweep to retain its one-game lead over second place La Verne in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC).

The Leopards (8-2) play a doubleheader with Pomona-Pitzer (0-10) and are favored to win both games.

Elsewhere, Redlands (7-6) is at Whittier (9-4) for two in the only other conference game.

In District Three play, Azusa Pacific (13-2) can clinch the Southern Division title with a double win at Point Loma.

At Oxy, C-M will face George Benson in the opener and Pete Davis in the nightcap. Benson went 10 innings against the Stags in Tuesday's 15-inning marathon.

Arce used Brad Rehn for 3 1/3 innings and Ed Matta for 11 and 2-3rds Tuesday. A guess would have Matta (6-4) or Mike Bruno starting the seven-inning opener and Rehn in the nightcap. Bruno still has not recovered from a sore arm.

Ben Hines of La Verne says he'll use his aces, John Verhoeven and Dan Quisenberry, each 7-1, against the Sagehens. That is providing Verhoeven's injured finger has healed sufficiently. The nail was torn loose last Saturday at Whittier.

Mike Riskas of the 'Hens tried to pull a switch and started Dave Lane Tuesday against the Leopards. But Lane lasted less than an inning and was replaced by Jon Blacker. Riskas' ace David Jones hurled the last three innings.

It is a certainty that Jones (4-6) will start one of today's games. The biggest problem facing Riskas is having enough pitching to go two games against the hard-hitting Leos. Last year the Sagehens were beaten in the seven-inning game and threw in the towel after five innings of the nightcap.

The twinbill will feature the two top hitters in the P-B hitting derby in action. Catcher-outfielder Biff Sherman of Pomona Pitzer leads all batters with a .517 average. Designated hitter Mike Alonso of La Verne is second with a .466 mark.

Down in San Diego, Tom Nelson of Azusa Pacific will start the Jones boys, Mike (5-4) and Ken (5-1) against Point Loma. Jim Donker (4-4) will be in reserve.

The hard-hitting Cougars are averaging .321 as a team.

Angels call up Morris Nettles

ANAHEIM (UPI) — The California Angels called up outfielder Morris Nettles from their Salt Lake City farm club Friday to replace Lee Stanton, who is on the disabled list for 21 days with a broken hand.

Nettles was to report to Cleveland immediately for the Angels' series against the Indians.

In 11 games at Salt Lake City this year, Nettles batted .256 and stole five bases in six tries. He led the Texas League last year with a .331 batting average.

Aztecs close international part of slate

LOS ANGELES— The L.A. Aztecs close out their international season at 3 p.m. Sunday at East Los Angeles College Stdium against Universidad of Mexico City.

Los Angeles has compiled a 2-1 record against first-division Mexican teams this season, beating Monterrey, 2-1, and Atlante, 1-0. Club America handed the Aztecs their first loss last week, 2-1, before more then 14,000 fans.

Los Angeles opens North American Soccer League play May 5 against Seattle at ELAC stadium.

Universidad finished Mexican professional soccer league play last Sunday, compiling an overall 12-9-13 record for fourth play is the standings.

Universidad's midfield is strengthened by Antonio DeLaTorre. At 23 years of age, DeLaTorre is one of the youngest members of the Mexican national team

Mexican international Leonardo Cuellar sparks the offense from his left wing position.

Universidad met Club America twice this season, recording a victory and a tie against the team which handed Los Angeles its first setback ever.

Tony Douglas has emerged as one of the most potent Aztec scorers after netting a goal and hitting the goal post against America last week.

His score with only six minutes remainging against America ignited an Aztec offensive surge which featured seven hard shots at America goalie Amador Palacios. Another Douglas shot hit the top of the crossbar.

"Douglas has a tremendous shot," says Aztec coach Alex Perolli. "And it gets better every game.

"Douglas is capable of scoring anywhere from as far as 35 yards out."

Los Angeles Managing General Partner Dr. Jack Gregory terms the international series "an outstanding sucess which gave us immediate credibility."

"The series did as much as we hoped for," continued Gregory. "It could've worked against us but we proved we can play outstanding professional soccer and gave Coach Perolli the opportunity to mold a team prior to the opening of league play."

Sunday's 12:30 p.m. preliminary game features Cal State Los Angeles College and Santa Monica City College, two of the outstanding university soccer teams in Southern California.

AZTEC NOTES — The Aztecs are carrying 21 players. The roster will be cut to 18 by the May 4 NASL deadlines . . . The Miami Toros of the NASL will play three exhibition games in Mexico during the next seven days . . . The Boston Minutemen organization has been joined by Gino Cappelletti, the 1964 AFL MVP and its leading scorer in 1963-1966 . . . Aztec forward Iris DeBrito is listed number 14 among the all-time NASL top scorers. He has scored 28 goals . . . The Seattle Sounders have signed forward Cirilo "Pepe" Fernandez, the most valuable player in the NASL in 1969 and the seventh all-time scorer. Fernandez played for the old Los Angeles Toros in 1967 . . . The Aztecs will feature "Azetc Shirt Day" at its May 5 NASL opener against Seattle . . . Largest advance ticket sale of the early season has been directed to May 12 when Kyle Rote Jr., the "Superstars Champion" and the Dallas Tornado meet the Aztecs . . . Club America Coach Antonio Rocco on the Aztecs: "They are a very good team, a surprising one. They played a hard game against us. The game was a beautiful game. All three scores were solid goals" . . . Rocco on Universidad: "They don't have our technique. They are a very rugged, aggressive team" . . . Perolli is recovering from a leg injury incurred when he was hit by a ball during an Aztec training session.

Purchase criticized

The Gadsden Purchase, whose 29,640 square miles include part of Arizona and New Mexico, was ratified in 1854 by a narrow margin because many senators felt the land was not worth $10 million. Opposition to the sale was even greater in Mexico where Santa Anna, the victor at the Alamo, was banished as a traitor for agreeing to it.

Fat people earn less

People who are overweight don't earn as much money as people who aren't. How's that for a blunt generality? Comes from a personnel expert who analyzed the weights and wages of a batch of executives. Among men in the $25,000-to-$50,000 category, says he, only about 10 per cent are carrying too much heft. But among men in the $10,000-to-$20,000 range, 40 per cent weigh in much too heavy. Job discrimination, he calls it.

Do you realize a baleen whale has to strain about 5,000 tons of sea water just to get 10 pounds of plankton?

If you want to feel a little older today, consider the fact that it has been 24 years since Christine Jorgensen's first name was George.

Lady client says she's embarrassed to admit her husband collects dolls. Tut tut, my dear, think nothing of it. Back in the 1500s, King Henry IV of France did likewise. Pretty little things all dressed in silk.

Q. "Where in the Bible does it mention sugar?"

A. Nowhere. Nor does it mention sugar in the Talmud or the Koran. Were you aware neither the ancient Greeks nor Romans ever knew anything about sugar? They knew all about honey, though.

Q. "What kind of pay did the Japanese soldier get during World War II?"

A. Ten yen a month. Equivalent to $2.36. Of that, $1.89 was automatically sent home. And 38 cents was deducted for compulsory savings. The other 9 cents was spending money.

Q. "What's the commonest mistake people make on their income ta returns?"

A. That No. 1 error is failure to include all W-2 forms, I'm told.

Mass hysteria has been offered as another explanation of the phenomenon known as streaking. Peculiar contagion, that mass hysteria. It cropped up in Africa's Uganda 11 years ago. Almost 1,000 people, each with a white chicken tucked under the arm, started running around madly. Kept at it until they dropped from exhaustion. Noboby seemed to know why. Then there was the situation last spring in a school at Berry, Ala. Reportedly, about 125 students plus a few teachers all began to cry, complaining they itched in some places and were numb in others, and much vomiting ensued, forgive me. Nobody could explain that, either. And way back in the 1830s, the nuns in a French convent for no comprehensible reason suddenly chose to gather for several hours daily to meow like cats. Each of the foregoing is said to be a classic case of mass hysteria.

The first independent Young Women's Hebrew Association (YEHA) was founded in 1902, but YM and YWHAs have since merged into a single organization. It provides social, cultural, physical and recreational programs for all age groups and has open membership. They are today usually called Jewish Community Centers.

2 women to return for SLA probe

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two tight-lipped militant women must return next week for more interrogation by a federal grand jury investigating murder, robbery and kidnap by the Symbionese Liberation Army.

Cynthia Garvey, and Janet Cooper, both 27, were subpoenaed by the grand jury which Thursday opened its investigation of an April 15 bank robbery allegedly conducted by members of the SLA and kidnaped newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst.

The Garvey woman said she refused to answer some questions under the protective guaranty of the Fifth AMendment. Miss Cooper, a one-time student activist at Stanford, demanded she be permitted to see her attorney each time U.S. Attorney James Browning asked her a question.

A driver's license belonging to Miss Cooper was used by the SLA to rent four automobiles in the $10,960 robbery of the Hibernia Bank. She said she reported the license lost or stolen last October. A police report was filed the same day the license became missing, she said.

Miss Cooper is a former spokeswoman for the revolutionary Venceremos — from which authorities say the SLA was spawned. As a graduate student instructor at Stanford she took part in heckling Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who was invited to the campus in the mid-1960s. She was barred from the campus following the incident.

Miss Garvey has been active in anti-war activities and worked on the Chino Defense Committee. She knew people in the Venceremos, Miss Garvey told newsmen.

Investigators say Emily Harris, 29, identified as a member of the SLA, was also active in the Chino Defense Committee. Mrs. Harris is the wife of William Taylor Harris, 31, who authorities say is also a member of the SLA, possibly the man identified as "Teko" in the latest tape recorded message from the terrorists. Both Harris' are at large.

Jack Dempsey wins decision

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jack Dempsey, under an out-of-court settlement, will be allowed to operate his Broadway restaurant at least until the end of the year.

The former heavyweight champion, 87, has been waging a legal battle for months to hold on to the restaurant, which has borne his name for 37 years. His lease with Brill Brothers, former owners of the building, had eight years to run, but the new owner, Inch Corp., claimed that lease was invalid and sought to evict him.

Under a compromise agreement Thursday, Dempsey's lawyers promised that Dempsey and his partner, Jack Amiel, would vacate the restaurant Dec. 31 unless a new lease can be re-negotiated with Inch.

"We're hopeful we can get a new lease," Amiel said.

Nothing funny about money

By JOSEPH FIRMAN

I always get a little nervous when a Secretary of the Treasury retires. What does he know what we don't know? It was no exception when George P. Shultz recently announced he would leave that post in Nixon's cabinet next month. (Do they frisk a Secretary of the Treasury when he leaves office?)

The President has proposed energy chief William E. Simon, appropriately nicknamed "Bill," to take over the signing of our currency. I was a little disappointed in Shultz anyway. When he took office I thought we'd see Charlie Brown on the $1 bills instead of Washington, and possibly Snoopy replacing whoever is on the $100 federal notes—it's beeen so long since I've seen one, I forget what they look like.

Must be fun to be a treasury secretary—all that money to fool around with. I expect he has bags of silver dollars piled around his desk, and his bookshelves stacked with crisp new $10,000 bills, in case he is short of cab fare or lunch money.

Simon told reporters that inflation is our biggest problem, and the rising cost of living "is going to be our number one avenue of concentration." It's not going to be simple for Simon. But he's done such a good job solving the energy shortage that I'm sure he'll be able to end the money shortage.

Money is funny, but being out of it is no laughing matter.

Lots of things have been used for money over the years—buttons, playing cards, seashells (so paying up was "shelling out"), salt, tobacco and cattle. Even today newspaper columnists work for peanuts.

Simon was making millions as an investment banker on Wall Street when he gave it up to become undersecretary of the treasury in 1973. Not ttoo smart. He must be one of those Wall nuts. Still, I think we can trust a man as rich as that not to dip into the petty cash on his way home, right? He's Simon pure.

In the American colonies people used to cut a Spanish collar into eight pieces, or bits—thus "pieces of eight" and our expression "two bits." (Remember "Shave and a haircut, two bits"?)

Moving from Wall Street to the Oval Room of the White House won't cause Simon any problems. He'll still be among friends—Jackson, Grant, Franklin, et. al. Franklin's picture is on the $100 bill (I looked it up). Other portraits with which I do not even have a nodding acquaintance are McKinley ($500), Cleveland ($1,000), Madison ($5,000), Chase ($10,000) and Wilson ($10,000). I have several large bills in my desk, but they are marked "Please Remit" and not "Federal Reserve."

If you spent a dollar a minute, it would take you two thousand years to spend $1 billion, a record Nixon seems bent on lowering by several hundred years.

As I say, money fascinates me. Wonder where I can borrow lunch money.

Texas classes to be bilingual

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Texas' public schools will offer bilingual classes this fall to 40,000 first graders with little or no knowledge of English.

The state legislature last year passed a new law requiring every school district in the state with an enrollment of 20 or more non-English speaking children in any grade level to offer bilingual instruction.

A shortage of Spanish-speaking and other dual-language certified teachers is expected to be a major problem the first year, according to officials of the Texas Education Agency.

Fire engine red may turn yellow

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The color of fire engines in California would be changed from red to lime yellow under legislation introduced Thursday by Assemblyman Alister McAlister, D-San Jose.

McAlister said there is "considerable evidence" to indicate that lime yellow is a safer color than red. He said it can be seen easier than red.

The measure (AB4063) would require the new color when engines are repainted or or if purchased after 'Janpm if purchased after Jan. 1, 1975.

First Lutheran Church

15 young people will receive confirmation

POMONA — Fifteen youths of First Lutheran Church will be received into membership by the rite of confirmation Sunday during the 9 a.m. service.

Those to be confirmed are Becky Battaglia, Andrew Blum, Sharon Coleman, Debbie Condit, Darla DeMoss, Eric Hagelberg, Scott Harwood, Tod Jochem, Craig Johnson, Phillip Johnson, Connie Jones, Steve Richards, Darcy Skews, Sherrill Srader and Greg Wiles.

"I Do Solemnly Promise" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. N. J. Boer during the service. Under the direction of Vic Hamilton, the choir will sing "A Closer Walk with God."

A reception in the Fellowship Hall will follow the service.

On Tuesday Dr. and Mrs. Gerhard Reitz, missionaries to New Guinea on leave in the United States, will be guests at a potluck dinner. The missionaries will tell of their experiences in New Guinea and show pictures and artifacts from mission areas in New Guinea at the 6:30 p.m. event.

'Undiscovery Day' may find recognition

OCEAN SHORES, Wash. (UPI) — At midnight tonight, Ocean Shores residents will leave their patios and cocktail lounges, trek across the sandy beach to the water's edge and shout, more or less in unison: "Hey, George!"

It is the climax of the annual celebration of "Undiscovery Day."

It was 182 years ago on April 28 that the intrepid British explorer Capt. George Vascouver sailed right past this place without notice.

He went on to discover Puget Sound, which he named for Peter Page, Mt. Ranier which he named for a British lord, and Hood Canal, named for a British admiral.

Ocean Shores was just a pile of sand dunes at edge of the Minard Dairy farm until a promoter decided it would make a nice place for a town back in the 1950s. He enlisted the aid of singer Ginny Sims and some of her friends and replaced the bootlegging "honkers" and other squatters with expatriots from the cities.

Trouble is, the city folk can't seem to cope without some cause to celebrate.

Gang led by a woman

$19.2 million in art masterpieces stolen

BLESSINGGTON, Ireland (UPI) — A gang of thieves led by a woman with a French accent stole $19.2 million worth of art masterpieces Friday night in a lightning raid on the home of financier Sir Alfred Beit, police said.

Police said the raiders, three men and two women armed with revolvers, burst into the home 20 miles south of Dublin, tied up Sir Alfred, his wife and three servants and escaped with the paintings in seven minutes.

The gang bound the staff hand and foot with twine in the library which housed the art collection, one of the greatest private collections in Europe.

Police said the woman leader apparently was an art expert and coolly selected the nine most valuable works in the collection at Beit's Russborough House.

The raiders removed the canvasses from their frames before escaping in a small station wagon.

Police said the paintings may have been stolen as a ransom for a political or criminal purpose.

Authorities set up roadblocks and alerted airports and seaports.

Sir Alfred, a former Conservative member of Parliament for St. Pancras and a member of a South African diamond family, freed himself about 30 minutes after the 10 p.m. raid.

Sir Alfred brought 33 paintings from South Africa to Ireland in 1954 and hung them in Russborough House, an 18th century home overlooking a lake.

National highway death toll drops 25 per cent

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Energy chief John C. Sawhill said Friday that the national highway death toll dropped 25 per cent in March —the first month that all states observed the energy-conserving 55 mile per hour speed limit.

To bolster the government's faltering energy savings program, Sawhill also proposed measures citizens should follow this summer. They ranged from warmer air conditioner settings to fewer neckties.

Sawhill and Dr. James Gregory, head of the National Traffic Safety Administration, told a news conference that an estimated 3,191 persons were killed on U.S. highways in March compared to 4,283 during the same month last year.

The decline in fatalities continues a trend which began last Noovember when a few states began to enforce the lower speed limit. Gregory estimated that a total of 3,700 lives have been saved since then.

Gregory said the lower death toll was directly related to the 55 m.p.h. speed limit and a tendency of motorists to drive less during the gas shortage. "Not only will we save fuel, but lives as well, if enforcement officials will continue their highway safety efforts and maintain the lower speed limit," he added.

Sawhill said the shortage of gasoline would be 4 to 6 per cent this summer, at worst. He said he expected some spot shortages, but none of the long lines which developed last year at gas pumps.

The energy conserving measures which Sawhill suggested included:

Setting air conditioner thermostats at 78 to 80 degrees. He estimated a homeowner would save 15 per cent on his cooling costs if the thermostat is set six degrees higher than last year.

—Operate the air conditioner only on very hot days and do not even buy one "unless you really need it."

— Wearing more sports clothes and fewer neckties. " . . . An open collar rather than a tight collar with a tie means greater comfort, equivalent to several degrees of atmospheric temperature," Sawhill said.

—Turn off as many electric lights as possible, not only to save electricity but also to cut down on the heat generated by electric lights.

—Do not purchase any unnecessary automobile accessories; cut out at least one short automobile trip every week; study gasoline efficiency tables before purchasing a car.

Contradicts report from Washington

Reinecke wants trial to continue on schedule

By MIKE BUTOWITSCH
P-B Staff Writer

ONTARIO — In direct contradiction to reports from Washington, Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke said Friday his attorneys had not asked for a delay of his trial beyond the June 4 gubernatorial primary.

Reinecke claimed that U.S. District Judge Barrington D. Parker was simply informed by his attorneys that if his request for a change of venue to California was denied, he would appeal.

Conceding that this latest move could delay his trial, Reinecke maintained, "It does not necessarily mean a postponement. We still want the trial before the primary."

Reinecke was indicted by a Watergate grand jury on three counts of lying to the Senate Judiciary Committee during testimony concerning the financing of the 1972 Republican National Convention.

The dispute centers around his knowledge of an offer by International Telephone and Telegraph to help finance the convention, then scheduled for San Diego.

Reinecke said his knowledge of the latest move by his attorneys stemmed from a brief phone call. Though he said he wasn't totally familiar with exactly what his attorneys in Washington had done, he did point out that his first priority was having the trial before the primary. He added that a change of venue could be granted and still have the trial before June.

Reports from Washington indicate that Reinecke's attorneys asked Assistant Special Prosecutor Joseph J. Connolly for a delay of his trial until after the primary.

Judge Parker reportedly agreed to the request and said he would sign an order to that effect next week.

In the afternoon press conference, Reinecke said both the change of venue and a trial date prior to the primary were crucial to his campaign.

Reinecke charged Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass. and Sen. John Tunney, D-Calif., with fomenting his legal troubles in a political maneuver to place a Democratic administration in California. This strategy, he explained, would further the presidential hopes of Sen. Kennedy.

Reinecke pleaded "absolutely not guilty" to the three counts of perjury and maintained his innocence yesterday, pointing out that he had worked five years in preparation for his gubernatorial campaign and implying that he didn't want anything to ruin his chances now.

Blue mist hovers over Chicago

30,000 persons flee deadly chemical cloud

CHICAGO (UPI) — A huge chemical storage tank sprang a leak Friday, sending a five-mile-long, half-mile-wide blue cloud of potentially deadly fumes 12,000 feet over Chicago's far South Side and adjacent suburbs.

Authorities began evacuating an area of 30,000 people.

Gov. Daniel Walker, after flying over the affected area, mobilized three battalions of the Illinois National Guardsmen to aid in evacuations and prevent looting.

All available fire department ambulances were called to the area around the tank of the Bulk Terminals Co. at 122nd Street and Stony Island Avenue.

Policemen and firemen working in the area wore gas masks.

Roseland Community Hospital reported at least 16 persons, some with heart conditions, had been brought in—most of them coughing heavily, having difficulty in breathing, and complaining of irritated, dry throats.

Ambulances were used to pick up eight or nine persons at Atgeld Gardens, a heavily populated housing project, and authorities said "a lot of people" passed out at Washington Carver High School, where some of those evacuated were taken.

Dr. Badi Boulos, a toxicologist at the University of Illinois Medical School, said the silicon tetrachloride fumes could be fatal to children or persons with respiratory ailments. And a spokesman for the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency said there was a danger the tank might rupture and shower the mist "on the heart of Chicago."

UPI Reporter John L. Taylor, preparing to evacuate his own family, described the mist as "a big cloud or fog. You had to put your car lights on to drive through it. After you breathe it for a while you have a burning sensation."

Another neighborhood resident, Mrs. Jesse Hudson, said, "We were at a community meeting when they came around with a loud speaker telling everybody to get out.

"It was just horrible. The stuff was real thick and you couldn't breathe outside. You couldn't even see down the block. People were coughing, choking."

"When they came and told us to get out and I went outside, I thought I was going to die," said Mrs. Tesse Williams. "I couldn't breathe and everything burned. They ought to let people know that stuff like that is around."

Persons entering the neighborhood felt their lungs begin to burn within minutes.

"It could cause a complete degeneration of cells in the respiratory tract," said Boulos. "The acid kills the lining of the respiratory tract and it could, in some cases, result in death."

Police paddy wagons were called into the area to aid in the evacuations. Officers sealed off a 40-block segment of the Calumet Expressway because the hanging mist was causing visibility problems. Firemen said residents of Harvey, 10 miles away, noticed the substance.

'ACID MIST' VICTIM

Firemen administer oxygen to a victim of a dangerous blue "acid mist" which spread over much of Chicago's South Side Friday following a chemical tank leak. Gov. Daniel Walker, after flying over the affected area, mobilized three battalions of the Illinois National Guard to aid in the evacuation of a population estimated at 30,000 and to prevent looting.

Probe of 4 plane crashes ordered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government Friday ordered "a special in-depth inspection" of flight operations at Pan American World Airways where four plane crashes in nine months have claimed 290 lives.

Federal Aviation Administrator Alexander P. Butterfield said the inspection "will begin immediately, and will cover such areas as pilot training, operation procedures, pilot supervision, pilot scheduling" as well as other areas.

A spokesman for Pan Am said, "We welcome the investigation and will cooperate fully."

Buterfield's action followed the crash of a Pan Am jetliner April 23 on the island of Bali, which killed 107 persons. On Jan. 30, another Pan Am jetliner crashed attempting a landing at Pago Pago, Samoa, killing 101 persons.

A third Pan Am jet—a cargo plane — crashed at Boston's Logan Airport, Nov. 3, 1973, killing three persons. Last July 22, 79 persons died when a Pan Am jet crashed on takeoff from the island of Tahiti in the Pacific.

"In view of the four crashes, we feel the investigation is a prudent thing to do," a spokesman for the FAA said.

But he emphasized that the agency was not drawing "any conclusions."

The investigation, which will take up to two months to complete, was ordered after FAA officials met with Pan American officials.

The National Transportation Safety Board, which investigates all commercial accidents involving fatalities, also is investigating the accidents, but as yet has not issued a report of its findings.

Drivers must conserve or face new gas crisis

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Another critical gasoline shortage faces California if the state's 12.5 million motorists don't continue to conserve fuel, a Department of Conservation official said Friday.

H. G. Mefferd, fuel allocation officer in the department's Division of Oil and Gas, said gasoline shortages will continue to ease during the latter part of this month and during May.

"But there are going to be problems this summer if the people don't continue their conservation practices," he warned.

Traditionally, Mefferd said, California builds up its gasoline reserve during the winter months and then uses the excess during the peak driving months of June, July and August.

"There is only going to be so much supply even with the lifting of the embargo," Mefferd said. "What's happened is the state has been drawing from the winter reserve and not saving for the summer peak months.

"If the conservation effort isn't continued there will be a shortfall this summer," he said.

The "gasoline crunch" eased somewhat in California during April and the familiar long lines and traffic jams around service stations disappeared.

Whether those long lines appear again will depend on the public, Mefferd said.

He said facts show that the number of cars on the state's highways is creeping back up to the pre-fuel crisis days, and from his personal observation it appears more motorists are exceeding the lower 55 mile per hour speed limit on freeways.

Government only problem in U.S. health: doctors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An association of doctors said Friday there is no crisis in health care in America except for the problems created by governmental interference.

Dr. Donald Quinlan of Chicago, president of the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, asked the House Ways and Means Committee to reject any national health insurance plan.

The association's testimony was the strongest opposition to various national health insurance plans so far during three days of hearings.

"There is no health care crisis in the United States," Quinlan said. "There is no public outcry for change. There is no public demand for Congress to dismantle our present system and build a European-style system on the wreckage.

"But there is widespread despair over bureaucratic bungling and rising costs that characterize Medicare and Medicaid."

He said the only crisis in health care in America was "created artificially by government intervention and propaganda."

Ramona School hit by 2nd fire

LA VERNE — A fire apparently set by an arsonist did $4,000 to a multi-purpose room Friday afternoon at Ramona Intermediate School.

The first occurred during the noon lunch hour at the school and officials said that the fire "was not accidental."

Three engine companies responded to the blaze and quickly knocked down the flames. Damage was limited to the stage area of the multi-purpose room.

There were no injuries and classes at the school were able to resume.

An arson investigation is under way.

The fire was the second one to strike the school in three weeks. On April 4 another fire caused about $12,000 damage to a science room at the school.

Like the fire Friday, the earlier blaze also occurred during the noon lunch hour.

Staff gives Nixon 36 edited tapes for final review

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon's legal staff has given him the edited transcripts of 36 subpoenaed tapes for final review before they are turned over to the House Judiciary Committee by its Tuesday morning deadline, White House aides reported Friday.

Although the committee had subpoenaed the actual tapes of 42 Watergate related conversations for its impeachment inquiry, these officials said six tapes are missing. Five were never recorded because the recording machine had run out of tape, they said, and the sixth conversation never took place.

In any event, the presidential aides strongly indicated Nixon intended to furnish only transcripts and not the actual tapes, an arrangement that Rep. Peter W. Rodino, D-N.J., the Judiciary Committee chairman, has declared would be unacceptable.

Nixon's aides, who could not be quoted by name, said profanities and irrelevant remarks had been deleted from the transcripts, but that they were "complete in their integrity" and would absolve the President of any complicity in the Watergate cover-up.

White House speechwriters were preparing a "white paper" to be made public at the same time the tape transcripts are turned over to Rodino's committee.

Although no decision had been made, officials said, Nixon was considering a broadcast address to the nation on Monday, the day before the committee's deadline for a presidential response to its subpoena.

Nixon was taking the transcripts with him for a long weekend at his Camp David, Md., retreat to study them in their entirety before they are given to Rodino's committee. Before his departure, the President conferred with White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler and chief of staff Alexander M. Haig.

Jury deliberates charges against Mitchell, Stans

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jury Friday deliberated criminal charges against Nixon officials John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans, the first former cabinet officers to go on trial in almost half a century.

The jury of nine men and three women apparently was painstakingly weighing each of the 15 counts of conspiracy, obstruction of justice and perjury against Mitchell and Stans, who gave up their powerful government posts to run the President's 1972 reelection campaign.

The two men are charged with conspiring to impede a federal investigation of fugitive financier Robert L. Vesco's freewheeling business operations in return for a secret $200,000 contribution to Nixon's campaign and then lying to a grand jury about their actions.

If convicted, the defendants could face a maximum penalty of five years on each count. Although the penalties amount to 45 years against each man it is customary in this federal court district for terms to be served concurrently. Fines could total $80,000.

After almost eight hours of deliberation —the jury first got the case late Thursday —the panel asked to review a memorandum from Vesco to F. Donald Nixon, the President's brother.

Also at the request of the jury, U.S. District Court Judge Lee P. Gagliardi reread his instructions dealing with conspiracy, indicating the jury was still pondering the first charges.

The comings and goings of the jury sent ripples of activity through the courtroom, which has been packed every one of the 46 trial days over the past 10 weeks. The crowd of reporters and cameramen waiting outside the gray granite federal court building was swelled throughout the day by between 100 and 150 curious spectators.

The judge touched on the political nature of the case in his final instructions Thursday by telling the jurors: "Without doing violence to your individual judgment, do not surrender your honest convictions for the mere purpose of rendering a verdict."

The Vesco memo, provided to the jurors, threatened to "blow the lid off" Vesco's secret cash donation to the campaign unless action was taken to stop a Securities and Exchange Commission probe of the financier's manipulations.

Prosecutor John R. Wing, said in his summation the memo represented an "out and out threat addressed really to the President of the United States" to do something about the probe.

THE QUINTS ARE ONE — Mrs. Eric Anderson of Brush Priarie, Wash. finds it's not so easy to get quintuplets to hold still for the photographer on their first birthday Friday. Services to the needy

Economy Shop offers help and hope

By JOSEPH H. FIRMAN
P-B STaff Writer

CLAREMONT — A small, white building on First Street just off Indian Hill Booulevard is the focus for a flourishing program that has brought help and hope to thousands of needy people for more than four decades.

This is the Economy Shop, a non-profit organization thriving on donations from the community, operated by volunteer help, and providing a wide variety of charitable services to the underprivileged.

Founded as a project of the community service coomitte of the Claremont Congregational Church, the Economy Shop has just celebrated its 41st anniversary.

Over the years it has received support from local clubs and organizations, but since 1941 it has been a purely civic enterprise working in cooperation with the Claremont Coordinating Council to avoid duplication in relief work.

The Economy Shop accepts from the community donations of clothing (especially outgrown children's clothes), furniture, appliances, books, picture frames, toys, dolls, purses, clocks, lamps, shoes, records, bric-a-brac, quilts, layettes and afghans. These are cleaned, refurbished and repaired by volunteers and sold to the public.

Proceeds from the sales take care of emergency hospital bills for needy residents, dental care, prescription glasses, medicines and special equipment for the care of children or elderly people. Economy Shop tides over families when the bread-winner is disabled, sends youths to camp during the summer, and provides toys, candy, food and gifts at Christmas time.

Over the years the Ecnomy Shop has given an average of more than $1,000 a year in services and financial support to the needy.

Board members are Dr. and Mrs. William L. Nute, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wright, Mrs. Annett Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Burton, Miss Hazel Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Tibbals and Mrs. Bertha Uniacke.

Mrs. Uniacke is the dean of Economy Shop volunteers. She moved to Claremont when her late husband was on the Pomona College faculty, and she joined the welfare group 32 years ago. She seldom misses a day.

Claremont has been very good to the Economy Shop, both by contributing goods and supporting the sales, according to Mrs. Uniacke. ("We get some fearful and wonderful things," she said with a smile.).

She stressed that service to recipients of Economy Shop help is "immediate and confidential." The shop provides aid to local families promptly and without publicity.

"Our main object is not to make money but to help people," said Mrs. Uniacke. "We temper the wind to the shorn lamb."

Is he a candidate or not?

Kennedy's plans for '76 uncertain

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's decision whether or not to seek the presidency in 1976 remained as uncertain as ever Friday despite what appeared to be a flat rejection Thursday.

Kennedy triggered the latest furor about his presidential plans Thursday when he told a reporter in New York City that he would not be a candidate.

Several hours later in Washington, without questioning the accuracy of the earlier report, Kennedy said his position remained unchanged from his previous statements that he has reached no decision.

Kennedy, the leading candidate for the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination in every poll, promised Thursday evening to make a final statement sometime late in 1975.

In 1972, he decided against making the race because of family responsibilities, specifically the fatherless children of his two assassinated brothers and his own three children.

There has been speculation that this feeling may have been heightened by the illness of his oldest son, 12-year-old Teddy, whose leg was amputated because of cancer.

Kennedy, arriving after a tiring trip from Moscow, was interviewed by Elizabeth Coleman of ABC-TV, New York.

Kennedy was asked "are you going to be running in 1976, senator?

"No."

"Absolutely not?"

"That's right."

Arriving for a dinner five hours later in Washington, Kennedy said he did not question the statement or the accuracy of it but added "my position is unchanged."

A possible explanation was Kennedy's statement that he was "tired" after being on the go for 18 hours and may have misstated his position or possibly misunderstood the question.

2-cent hike in milk looms

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The retail price of milk in Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties and parts of Ventura and Santa Barbara will be hiked 2 cents per half gallon effective May 5, state agriculture officials said Friday.

C.B. Christensen, director of the State Department of Food and Agrculture, which controls the price of milk in California, said the jump was "necessary to cover the increased costs of processing and distribution."

The price hikes, submitted to the Cost of Living Council for approval, increase the retail store price to 71 cents per half gallon in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and Orange County.

In the densely populated portions of San Bernardino and Riverside counties, part of Ventura County and the eastern portion of Santa Barbara County, half gallon prices will rise to 72 cents.

In the sparsely populated portions of eastern San Bernardino and Riverside counties, the half gallon price will jump to 73 cents.

"The higher prices represent the first increase to the distribution segment of the dairy industry in this area in over three years," Christensen said.

"The previous increases in milk prices paid by consumers were passed directly through to the dairy farmers," Christensen said.

Turkish court upholds life terms for 3

ANKARA (UPI) — A Turkish appeals court Friday upheld the life sentences imposed on three Americans convicted of hashish smuggling. They originally were sentenced to death but that sentence was commuted.

The Fifth Court of Appcals also ruled against a new trial for the two women and one man but did agree with their argument that the court which tried them no right to seize the mminbus in which the 230 pounds of hashish was found.

The court ruled that article 36 of the Turkish penal code did not allow the seizure because the vehicles did not belong to the Americans—Kathryin Zenz, 28, of Lancaster, Wis., Joann Marie McDaniel, 29, of Coos Bay, Ore., and Robert E. Hubbard, 23, of San Antonio, Tex.

Tension in Claremont

Park off-limits during school day

CLAREMONT — Claremont High School Principal Alex Hughes announced Friday that Cahuilla Park will be closed indefinitely during school hours to all high-school-aged students.

Hughes made the announcement after two days of tension on the 2,200-student campus.

Police cleared students from sitting on the Cahuilla Park wall adjacent to the school after Hughes had met with his administrative staff, district superintendent R.S. Kirkendall, and community resources officer Gus Kitterle, and requested the action.

Tension mounted on the campus Friday morning after a report that three black youths who were not Claremont High students were extorting money from white students at Cahuilla Park.

On Thursday two teachers reported seeing two white students chasing a black student across the parking lot. A group of students sitting on the park wall was attracted to the incident, and they were joined by many students leaving classes and going home.

Police were called, and three units responded. Officers and proctors dispersed the crowd.

Hughes, after a meeting with his staff and Kitterle, decided to stop "outside elements" from getting onto campus.

When Claremont High students arrived at school Friday morning, they discovered the Oxford Avenue entrance to the parking lot barricaded, and the Indian Hill Boulevard entrance manned by a high school proctor and a police officer who barred entry to the campus to anyone who couldn't identify himself as belonging there.

Students thronged on the wall as usual, and when a rock was thrown at a car leaving the parking lot, fights broke out.

It was then that Hughes decided to clear the wall and make the park "off limits" from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. during school days.

Two 15-year-old Claremont High students were taken to the police station, charged with failure to obey a police officer, and were released to their parents.

Acting Police Chief Charles Starcher said that if the school requests an officer, he will be dispatched.

Starcher summed up the incidents as "a few minor bumps and bruises, and hurt pride."

Chino presses on to keep hills airport study alive

CHINO — The City of Chino plans to continue with sponsorship of a feasibility study on building a major airport in the chino Hills despite Anaheim's recent decision to withdraw. The cities of Chino, Anaheim and Stanton had formed a joint powers authority to seek federal participation in such a study.

Chino Mayor Bob McLeod said that city planned to continue and had received inquiries from four other cities regarding the joining of the authority. These cities included one in Riverside County, two in Orange County and one in Los Angeles County.

Such a feasibility study is expected to cost $1 million, with two-thirds coming from the Federal Aviation Administration. For FAA funds to be made available, they must be requested by the city sponsors.

McLeod said he believed there is much misunderstanding about the feasibility report. "There is no commitment to the Chino Hills as an airport site. There is no intent to arrive at a decision for an airport site until the study has been completed."

Recent studies show a need for another airport in Southern California, he added, Sites have been proposed in San Diego and Riverside counties and in the Chino Hills.

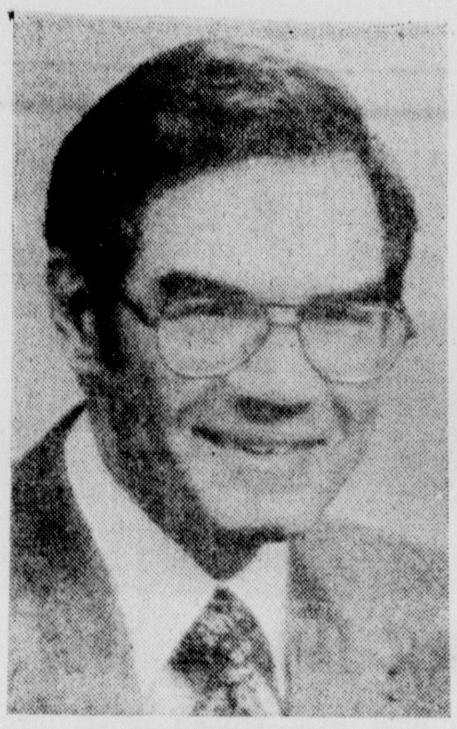
The proposed study, he added, would include other proposed sites.

McLeod said it may take two or three years before information regarding an airport site is conclusive. "We expect to take six months before receiving a grant from the federal government. Then it may take two years to complete the study."

At present, the preliminary application is ready to be presented to the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) and the FAA.

The Chino Hills Airport Complex, Inc., a nonprofit group, seeks to build a jetport on 4,000 acres which straddle the Orange and San Bernardino county lines. The proposed site is four miles northeast of Yorba Linda and four miles southwest of Los Serranos.

Developers plan to build two 12,000-foot runways to handle commercial and general aviaition operations.



DR. ARTHUR MADORSKY

Medical chief is appointed at Casa Colina

POMONA — Dr. Arthur Madorsky of Claremont has been appointed medical director of Casa Colina Hospital.

Dr. Madorsky, who was medical director at General Dynamcis Pomona for three years before assumnig his post at Casa Colina, is an internist, cardiologist, lecturer and teacher.

He was in private practice for more than 10 years in the Pomona area and has been active with the Los Angeles County and East San Gabriel Valley chapters of the American Heart Association.

The Casa Colina director is a graduate of Western Reserve University, Ohio, and the California College of Medicine.

He has been a member of the attending and consulting medical staffs at Pomona Valley Community Hospital and an instructor for the cardiac arythmias nursing and medical staff there.

Dr. Madorsky has been involved with patient care at Casa Colina since 1968 when he became a member of the medical staff. He was the associate medical director in 1969 to 1970 and directed the cardiac evaluation and rehabilitation program from 1969 to 1971.

Claremont urges no signal change

CLAREMONT — The City Council has voted to ask the county to modernize the left-turn traffic signals at Arrow Highway and Indian Hill Boulevard.

The council Tuesday night supported a recommendation from the city Traffic Safety Committee opposing elimination of the left-turn signals and voted to ask the county to change a signalization contract already awarded.

The contract calls for taking out the left-turn signals. The city would like the left-turn signals to remain, as long as they can be modernized. Four members of the Traffic Safety Committee supported the action.

Public Works Director Paul Cook told the council that a contract has been awarded for removal of the Arrow Highway left-turn signals at Indian Hill Boulevard.

Cook had recommended removal of the left-turn signals because a state traffic manual calls for separate left turn phasing only when the peak hour traffic reaches a certain level, and Arrow Highway does not qualify.

Committee member John Sloan said that the left-turn arrows are the only "sure thing" school children have to cross the intersection.

"I don't understand the government being against saving $2,400." It would cost about $600 a light to update the signals.

The county Board of Supervisors has awarded a $552,313.29 contract to Aman Brothers for the widening of Arrow Highway in Pomona and Claremont to a divided four-lane highway eastward to Indian Hill Boulevard.

Youth hostels group to plan summer trips

CLAREMONT — The 12th annual summer travel program for youth, sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Council of American Youth Hostels, will be kicked off officially at a meeting Sunday at the Youth Activities Center.

The meeting will be the first of two. The other will be held May 5. Both meetings start at 2 p.m.

Topics for discussion will range from physical conditioning to packing a six-week wardrobe into a pair of saddlebags. Films and slides from past AYH trips are planned along with ample time for questions and answers.

This is the 12th year the council is holding meetings as part of the orientation for its summer trips program. Executive Director Pete van Nuys recalls that it began with the enthusiastic return of the first local group from Europe in 1962.

"It's grown into a program with trips not only in Europe, but Canada, Hawaii and throughout the western U.S." van Nuys said.

AYH plans the trip, then sends groups of seven to 10 persons with an adult leader. "Groups travel on a low budget and a high sense of adventure," van Nuys explained.

"They share," he said, "a special attitude toward travel, reaching out to each other and to the people they meet along the way for authentic experiences."

Van Nuys indicated that spaces still are available in both foreign and domestic travel groups.

Persons interested in a summer adventure with AYH should contact van Nuys at 215 W. First St.

ROBERT LEWIS

Chamber elects new officers for the coming year

POMONA — Robert Lewis, president of Foothill Beverage Co., has been elected president of the Pomona Chamber of Commerce.

He succeeds Norman Williamson, Jr., who automatically becomes treasurer. The change in leadership takes effect on July 1.

Other officers include Jay Ambrose, manager of Sears Co. store, Joe Gendron, editor of the Progress-Bulletin, and Lynn Rountree, assistant superintendent of the Pomona Unified School District, as vice presidents.

These five members plus Dave Ormiston, chamber manager, will make up the chamber's executive committee.

Lewis had served on the chamber board in 1966 and 1972. During the past year, he was a vice president and headed the organizational development council.

New officers were elected at a recent board of directors meeting.

6 at training school found guilty of riot

ONTARIO — A West Valley Superior Court jury has found six Youth Training School wards guilty of a conspiracy to commit an assault on other wards during a July 9, 1973 racial riot. Another ward and a former YTS counselor were acquited.

The jury returned its verdict Thursday after 5½ days of deliberations in the court of Judge James Cunningham. The trial lasted more than two months.

The jury found YTS wards Marvin Kincy, Gregory McCloud, Bertram Arnett Rogers, Henry Jackson and Donald M. Candler, all Negroes, guilty of conspiracy to commit assault with a deadly weapon on a group of Caucasian wards in the racial incident.

Former YTS Counselor Stanley Wagstaff and ward Alvin Todd were found innocent of all charges.

In the incident eight wards were hospitalized, two of them Negroes.

Wagstaff was accused of allowing the wards to hide their weapons in a field outside the recreation yard of the living unit after the attack. But testimony by a defense witness showed that Wagstaff may not have opened the gate and had no part in the attack. None of the prosecution witnesses could remember Todd holding a weapon or attacking any ward.

Judge Cunningham ordered the six wards found guilty to return to the court on May 16 for sentencing.

MSAC employe group reduces salary request

WALNUT — A clerical error in the computation of the cost of living has forced a Mt. San Antonio College official to lower his sights on what classified employes should get in salary raises.

Eugene Curl, assistant business manager, had asked the Board of Trustee last week to grant a 12 per cent across-the-board pay raise to the college's 290 noncertificated employes.

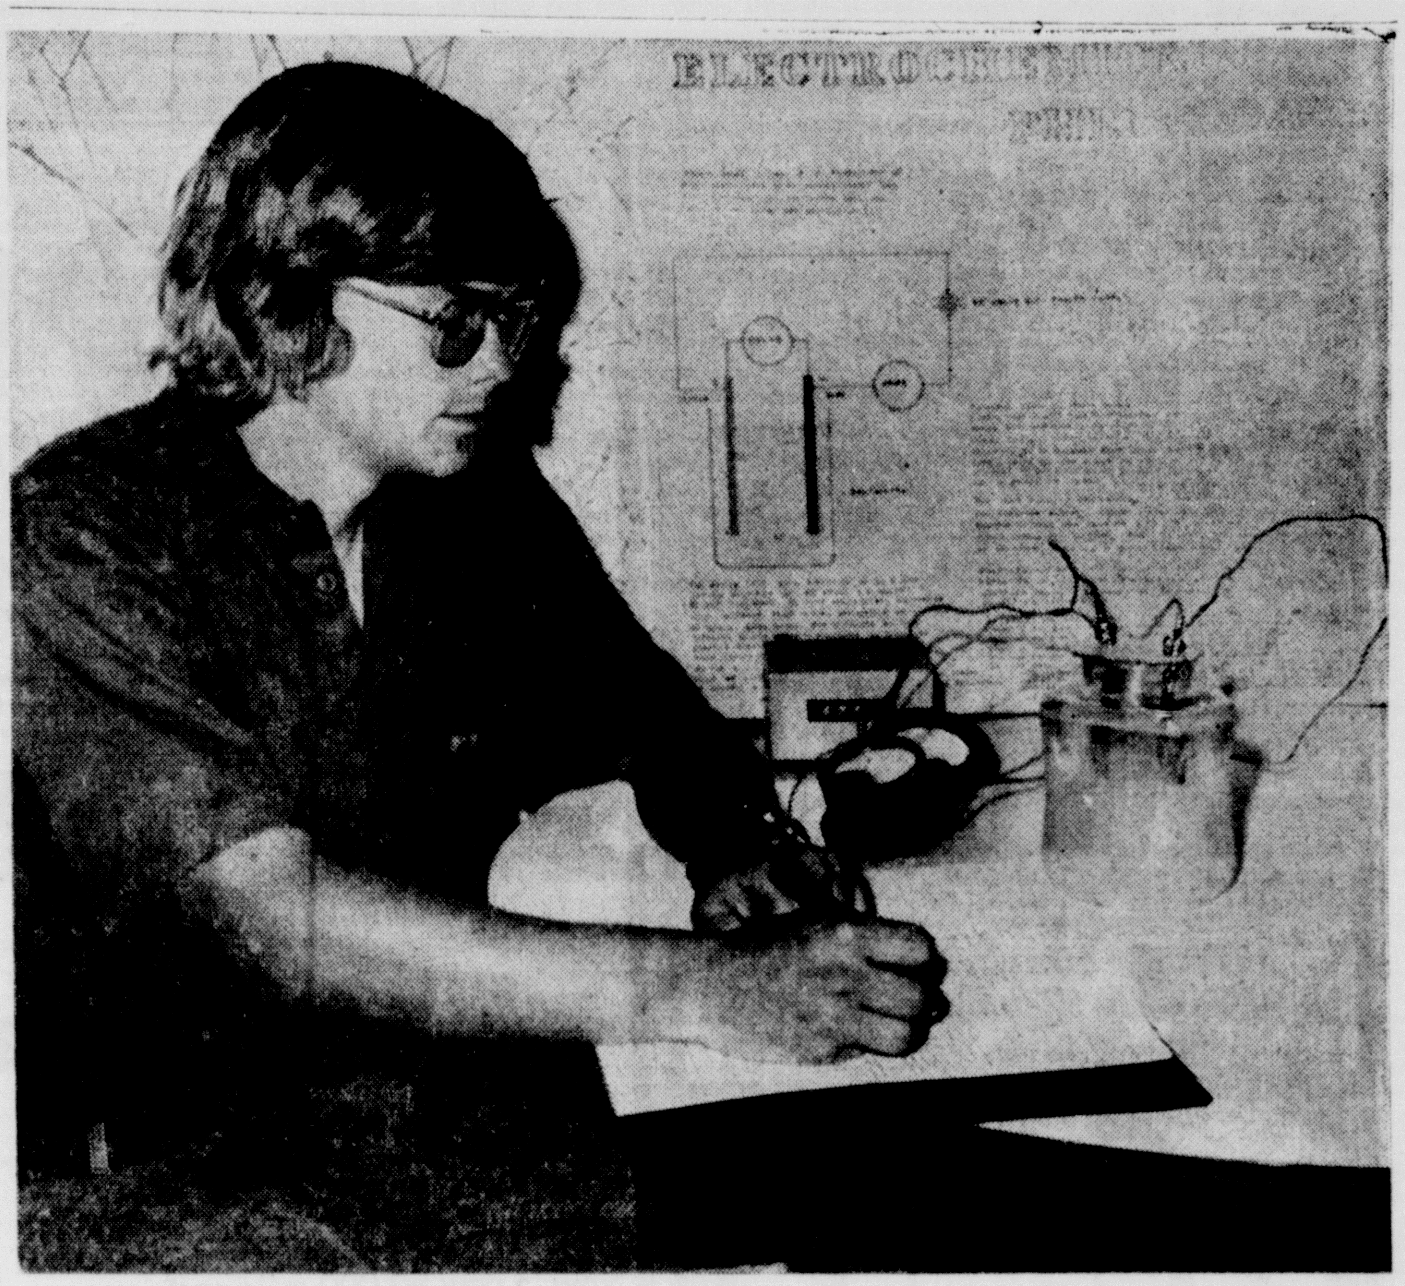
He said the request was based on cost of living index figures which showed expenses would go up at least 12 per cent by the end of the current fiscal year.

Curl says an error has been discovered, and now his figures show that the cost of living will go up about 9 per cent. He has sent a new proposal to the board, suggesting a 9 per cent raise.

Associations and unions which made separate bids for pay raises, however, are not making any revisions.

The teachers contend that their request was not based on Curl's figures but their own. They still ask a 12 per cent raise.

And leaders of groups representing the classified employes aren't changing their requests either. They say Curl's request was independent of their own. They still seek raises ranging from 12 to 16 per cent.



SALT WATER CONVERSION

Jeff Blaney, a Claremont High senior, checks his experiment of the "electrochemical phenomena of salt water." The experiment was awarded first prize in the high school's annual science fair. Blaney plans to seek higher honors in the annual county museum science fair.

Salt-water curiosity leads Claremont High student to science fair award

CLAREMONT — A Claremont High senior has used the salt water of Mission Bay in an electrochemical experiment which won him first place in the chemistry division of the annual high school fair.

Jeff Blaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Glaney Jr., 961 Richmond Drive, likes to travel on weekends with his family to San Diego where he can race across the sunny waters of Mission Bay. There he collected water samples.

Blaney ran electric house current through a transformer, an ammeter, and a volt meter and a copper plate on the positive pole. To the negative pole he attached a zinc plate. He inserted both poles into the salt water.

Sodium ions from the water went to the copper plate, and hydrogen gas bubbled from the zinc plate. Then a green powder called cupric oxide settled to the bottom, and a blue layer of cupric chloride formed along the surface of the water.

The idea of the experiment was to reveal electro chemical changes possible in salt water as opposed to fresh water.

Blaney said that he plans to sophisticate his experiment for entry in the annual competition at the county Museum of Science and Industry.

Carrying a 3.34-point average, Blaney is studying chemistry for the first time as a backup for his major in biology. He would like to major in medical biology and plans to go to Pomona College this fall.

Claremont High instructors have offered an incentive to those competing in the science fair. Placing or winning in the local fair gives a student an A for the quarter. Placing in the county museum competition gives a student an A for the semester.

Jeff's father is sales engineer for Aramco Steel Co. at La Habra. Jeff's mother is a secretary at Pomona College and professors there have encouraged him in hs work.

Jeff divides his time between studying, spending weekends with the family in racing an eight-foot sabot, a 13-foot laser, sailing a 36-foot sloop, skin diving, or working on gaining enough merit badges to earn his Eagle award in Troop 101.

As his Eagle project, Jeff has served as a teacher aide at Condit Elementary School, and also is tutoring Claremont High students in mathemaics, Algebra II and geometry.

Jeff likes the concept of the module system at Claremont High. "If you use your free time wisely, it can work out very well," he commented.

Second place in the chemistry division went to Mike Glass who experimented in caffeine. Kay Hodges took third with "surface tension." Carrie Banwell, and Shaif Mikhail were given honorable mention. Sharon Paul received a craftsmanship award.

Top ribbon in physics was awarded to Tom Banwell, who put together a simple data recording system. Clark Harris took second with "Match Rifle, How Precise?" Mary Myers received third place with an experiment in vibration measurement.

Scott Foresman and Gary Jenkins took honorable mention, and Jeff Kunselman received a craftsman award.

Melisa Salvato was award first place in bioloby with her experiment in "Electrophoresis of Serum Proteins". "Muscle Contractions" won for Cynthia Banwell a second place. Susan Phillips took third with "Antacids." Craig DeWilde and Liz Weston were given honorable mentions, and Steven Tecotzksy a craftsmanship award.

Best of show went to Tom Banwell.

The bank plans to start construction in July on a $375,000 permanent office with 10,800 square feet of floor space.

'Yep,' says Reagan, he paid state taxes

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Asked if he paid a state tax on his 1973 income, Gov. Ronald Reagan replied only, "Yep."

Reagan, who long has contended that "taxes should hurt" drew fire three years ago when it was disclosed he paid no 1970 state income taxes because of "business reverses."

Cucamonga Channel project languishes

Solons add voices to plea for flood control funds

SAN BERNARDINO — County officials are gaining support in seeking federal funds to start improvements for the Cucamonga Channel drainage system which serves to protect the West End of San Bernardino County.

They seek to insert $3.2 million in the new federal budget to finance the first two mile section, which extends north from Prado Basin.

County Supervisor Robert Townsend said he enlisted support from U.S. Reps. Victor Veysey, R-43rd Dist., George Brown, D-38th Dist., and U.S. Sen. Alan Cranston.

Veysey is a member of the congressional appropriations committee, which will hear testimony April 30 and May 1 supporting the flood control project.

Townsend said he met Friday with Cranston in San Bernardino and outlined need for the project. "Cranston pledged his support and asked to be kept informed," said Townsend.

"When the application clears Veysey's Appropriations Committee, Cranston said he would carry this through the Senate," he added. "The senator said the county can count on his support."

Townsend said he also met with Brown, who also offered support when the application goes before the Appropriations Committee.

Art Sidler, county flood control director, will spend the two days in Washington to testify before the congressional committee, said Townsend.

The California Water Commission earlier had recommened $5 million be included in next year's fiscal budget for the project. This amount, however, was omitted from President Nixon's proposed budget.

County officals are seeking to have Congress insert the funds into the budget before its members give final approval.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers has completed construction designs and basic engineering needed to start construction. If funds are approved, work could begin next spring.

The Cucamonga Channel system, which includes Cucamonga Creek, Deer Canyon Creek and Demens Creek, is designed to carry storm water from the foothills above Upland and Alta Loma to the Prado Basin south of Chino—a distance of 14 miles.

The proposed project includes lining the channel with concrete walls and floors to better confine the run-off water. There will be some debris basins built at the mouth of these channels to prevent large rocks from entering and clogging the main channels.

Officials hope the initial federal allocation will prime further U.S. spending for the entire project. With a proper flow of funding, the entire project could be completed within five years, they added.

The channel work will also include construction of hiking and biking trails, rest areas, small parks and a system to divert some runoff water into spreading grounds for percolating back into the underground basin.

Crisis leads to bats in library

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Bats have taken up residence in the new undergraduate library at Stanford University because of the energy crisis.

School officials said Tuesday that fifth-floor windows were opened so the air conditioning system could be turned off to save electricity. The bats then made their entry.

Now the bats hang from the fire sprinkler heads in the ceilings.

Now, a new 50,000 mile performance champ:
World's first radial passenger tire with a steel belt & steel body

April 27th, a significant date in tire history.

The introduction of an unusual new kind of passenger car tire.

You should remember that you saw it first at 4day, and only at 4day.

Ten years from now all the majors will be plugging their own all-steel tire. All steel meaning a high performance tire that not only has a steel belt but also uses woven steel wire instead of fabric cords to form the casing itself.

This new tire is made for us by IRI in Louisville, Ky. The first new tire manufacturer in the US in nearly half a century.

For a starter, we've received our first shipment of 300 tires. That's about three sets for each of our 21 stores.

These first ones are in one size only. H78-15. It's a size that fits many station wagons and light trucks. Black sidewall only. How does it ride? Harsh or silky soft?

We'll tell you what we think and then let you tell us what you think.

We think it's the strongest tire you can buy, and yet it gives an unbelievably smooth ride. It's really a new experience in tire comfort, especially at speeds over 25 mph.

But we'd rather have you tell us what you think.

We'll sell every set with a two week trial.

If you like them, keep them. If not, bring them back, we'll remount your old tires, and mail you a full refund.

That's a daring thing to do.

But then, this is a daring new tire.

More about the tire & its maker

Three years ago a determined and venturesome tire expert, George R Edwards, opened an unusual new kind of tire manufacturing plant in Louisville, called IRI, Inc. (International Rubber Industries).

His objective, to build the finest and most expensive passenger tire in existence.

The new company took advantage of the research, patents, equipment, chemical compounds, secret methods and tire expertise of Fabriken Bayer, a huge multi-billion dollar chemical and polymer supplier in Europe which has been doing extensive research for several years in its pilot plant in Cologne and used this opportunity to gain a foothold in the US market.

The new plant will produce only 300 tires a day, in the larger sizes. 4day will receive a substantial portion of this limited production.

The new IRI all-steel radial not only provides exceptional wear and road handling characteristics. The problem of accelerated wear in the outer ribs, common to most radial tires, is overcome by the single-ply body construction, with the same wire in body of the casing and the belt.

Also by reinforcing the casing directly below the beads with a turn-up of the radial steel cords, IRI has eliminated the radial tendency toward a sudden road holding break-away on high speed turns.

"Because we're interested only in the premium market," says Edwards, "everything we've put into this tire is the best money can buy. As little as 10c a tire can alter the production decisions of the majors because of their volume."

The new IRI radial will have a distinctive "stainless steel" colored sidewall, a treatment that sets this tire apart and dramatizes its all-steel construction. However, this first shipment includes black sidewalls only.

An expensive tire? Perhaps. But this new all-steel radial gives you more miles and more performance per dollar of price than any other tire you can buy.

Our 4day cut price for a 50,000 mile tire speaks for itself.

The first really all-steel radial

Steel belted radials contain woven steel "threads" only in the belt, under the tread.

This, so far as we know, is the first all-steel passenger car radial in history.

It employs only steel in the casing and belt construction. No fabric at all. The "fabric" is made of woven steel wire.

And just in case some purist says our all-steel tire isn't all-steel at all because it contains rubber compounds in the sidewalls and tread, he's right. This is an automobile tire, not a streetcar wheel.

Our two uses for numbered cones

We do our level best to take every customer in proper sequence.

That's why we immediately place a numbered cone on your car. It tells our men who's next.

However, when a customer drives in for the 5,000 mile inspection, it's a dirty trick for us to make him wait for the tires to be installed on the cars ahead of him. And then come out to inspect his tires, initial his guarantee, and send him on his way because his tires don't require rotation.

Can you blame him for not being happy with a 20 minute wait for a three-minute inspection?

Instead, he receives a numbered cone just as everyone else does. If he came in for the 5,000 mile inspection, a little tab is placed on the side of his cone. It says, "Inspection only".

Now, when one of our men is between installation jobs, the manager can spare him for three minutes to make the inspection.

If your tires are wearing properly, you can be on your way without a long wait at the end of the line, and without really inconveniencing those ahead of you.

However, if your tires do require rotation, we simply remove the "Inspection only" tab and you wait your regular turn, because rotation does take longer and it would be unfair to others for us to put your car on the hoist ahead of them.

You see, we try to be as efficient and as helpful as we can with every customer.

And now, you can help us. If you're asked to wait and you don't immediately get a numbered cone, just untie our man's shoelaces or something. We'd appreciate it.

Council seeking support for day of humiliation

Top officials of the Pomona Valley Council of Churches are urging the observance of National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer on Tuesday.

Dr. James W. Angell, president of the council, and Dr. G. Merrill Lenox, executive director, issued a joint appeal for the observance stating, "We hope every church and every individual will in some way observe this day which has been set aside by a proclamation from Congress."

The council officials called attention to a verse of scripture, II Chronicles 7:14, which reads, "If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins and will heal their land."

Ways to observe the day as suggested by the council include arranging special prayer groups, opening church buildings throughout the day for private prayer, and holding prayer sessions in homes, businesses, educational institutions and in other appropriate settings."

Council officials also urged individuals to "set aside time to join in repentance for personal and national transgressions and to seek God's forgiveness and continuing guidance in their lives."

The proclamation, as approved by Congress, reads:

"Whereas, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men to owe their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is Lord; and

"Whereas, we know that we have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown; but we have forgotten God; and

"Whereas, we have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own; and

"Whereas, intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us; and

"Whereas, we have made such an idol out of our pursuit of 'national security' that we have forgotten that only God can be the ultimate guardian of our true livelihood and safety; and

"Whereas, we have failed to respond, personally and collectively, with sacrifice and uncompromised commitment to the unmet needs of our fellow man, both at home and abroad; as a people, we have become so absorbed with the selfish pursuits of pleasure and profit that we have blinded ourselves to God's standard of justice and righteousness for this society; and

"Whereas, it therefore behooves us to humble ourselves before Almighty God, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness: Now, therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, that the Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974, be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins."

CHAD STENDAL

ALFONSO NUIVITA

Missionary, Indian to speak at rally

CLAREMONT — Missionary-translator Chad Stendal and his language helper, Alfonso Nuivita, a Kogi Indian, will be the speakers at the All Nations Dinner Rally at Griswold's Smorgasbord on May 8 at 7 p.m.

Stendal and his wife, Pat, analyzed the Kogi language to translate the Bible scriptures into the language of the Kogi Indians, a pygmy tribe in Colombia, South America. Nuivita risked his life to aid Stendal in the analysis, since it is a crime punishable by death for a Kogi Indian to give language or cultural information to an outsider.

The remote Kogi tribe, numbering 4,000 people, was completely closed to outsiders until the Stendals visited in 1964.

Tickets to the dinner may be obtained by calling Mr. and Mrs. Lou Benham at 622-2998, Pam Hunt at 627-3798 or Elaine Besek at 982-4626.

Dr. Penner ends interim ministry

CLAREMONT —Dr. Albert Penner wil end his interim ministry at the Claremont United Church of Christ, Congregational, on Sunday speaking on the topic, "A Faithful Spokesman," during the 10 a.m. worship service.

Following the servce a farewell party for Dr. and Mrs. Penner will be held in Norton Garden of the church.

During the service the Chancel Choir, directed by Louis Ronfeldt, will sing "We Have Builded a Temple" and "Greater Love Hath No Man." The Bellringers, directed by Lee Waggener, will present "Come Thou Almighty King."

The first session of two spring adult education courses will meet at 9 a.m. The Gospel of John will be taught by Doug Parrott in the Sumner Room, and the course on Dietrich Bonhoeffer will be taught by Chris Hilbig in the Louise Roberts Room.

Sermon by student

CLAREMONT — Alan Strout, minister-in-training in the Parish Studies Semester of the School of Theology at Claremont, will deliver the sermon during the 10 a.m. Sunday service at the Claremont Presbyterian Church.

A first year student at the Claremont school, Mr. Strout did his undergraduate work at the University of Redlands and UCR.

A congregational work day will be held at the church May 4 from 9 to 4 p.m. Church workers will weed paint and renovate the church buildings and grounds.

Bridge

A better play for 6 spades

By Oswald & James Jacoby

As we have pointed out many times, there is nothing in the code word ARCH that involves talking to your partner. What it does involve is planning a trick one with the special emphasis on the "H" which stands for "How can I make my contract."

South ruffed the club lead in dummy and remarked. "Maybe we didn't bid enough." Then he led the king of trumps and another trumps.

At this point he stopped to think for the first time. You readers can see that a spade finesse followed by a heart to dummy and a second finesse will bring the slam home but at this point South visualized the possibility that West had started with three trumps to the queen. In that case the finesse would lose; West would lead his last trump and South would need a diamond finesse to come to 12 tricks.

South also saw that if he played his ace he would have the slam against any 3-2 trump break, so he played the ace and the hand collapsed.

If South had just asked, "How" at trick one he would have seen the really safe way to make six. He should lead a low trump at trick two and finesse right then and there. If the finesse lost there would still be enough trumps in dummy to allow a second club ruff. After it worked South would simply lead back to dummy's king; pick up the rest of the trumps and take his slam to the bank.

China may buy less U.S. food

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two successive years of good crops may result in a decline this summer in China's heavy purchases of American food and cotton, according to an Agriculture Department report.

China's record 1973 harvest has been followed by "reasonably good" prospects for a big 1974 crop. If the new crop turns out as expected, Chinese agricultural imports could drop from current record levels "and farm imports from the United States could be cut back somewhat."

Ragman acquitted of theft charges

MILAN, Italy (UPI — Picking up discarded packing materials outside a supermarket is no crime, a court has ruled.

It acquitted ragman Vincenzo Iannittelli of aggravated theft charges filed by a supermarket manager who said a wastepaper dealer had exclusive contract rights to the market's discarded cartons. Iannittelli, a father of nine, had spent 14 days in jail awaiting trial.

Four meet records fall at MSAC

By KEVIN CLOE
P-B Staff Writer

WALNUT — The first day of the 16th Annual Mt. San Antonio Relays was put to bed Friday night after a fairly quiet day.

However, four meet records were broken and one tied during the 12 hours of competition, which highlighted the colleges and high schools.

'One of the four records was set by a hometown athlete — Dave Krogh of Mt. San Antonio College. Krogh, who had been consistently throwing the javelin over the 220-foot mark for the past two weeks, shattered the Relays record in his main event by hurling the spear 226 feet, 4 inches. His toss surpassed the old mark by a little over an inch, held by Frank Covelli of Cerritos from the 1961 Relays.

Dave Hamer, a pole vaulter from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, made a surprise appearance in the college invitational and reset the Relays record. He cleared 16 feet, 10 inches to bring down the previous mark of 15-8¼ by Dan Stebben of Occidental.

Then in the college-university 880 yard relay, Hamer's teammates from SLO established a new meet mark.

The quartet of Joe Prince, Curtis Boyd, Kerry Gold, and Clancy Edwards sprinted to a 1:24.7 clocking in the half. It surpassed the 1:25.9 mark set by the Unversity of Redlands in 1964.

The fourth record was set in the night competition during the high school action. Favored Willie Banks of Oceanside demolished the previous Relays' record in the triple jump by leaping 50 feet, 7¼ inches. It topped the old mark set two years ago by Xavier McAfee of San Diego of 45-11¼. Banks, who received ovations from the Relays' crowd all day, finieshed the day a double winner after winning the long jump at 24-1¼.

The West Los Angeles' invitational 440 yard relay team tied a Relays' mark in the junior college division when it flashed a 41.0 clocking.

MSAC's Krogh got the Mounties going in what turned out to be a pretty good day for the host school.

Before a full-day crowd of 4,500 fans, the Mounties won three of the eight junior college field events during the afternoon session. Along with Krogh's record-breaking victory in the javelin, triple jumper Stan Bland won his event with a leap of 47-11½ and high jumper Steve Miller beat Fullerton's Tony Madau at 6 foot, 10 inches on fewer misses.

What was supposed to be the big race Friday night turned into an upset. The open university distance medley relay saw Arizona State stun the Florida Track Club and UCLA, anchored by Upland High grad Gordon Innes, in a time of 9:43.2.

The top two high school events scheduled for Friday night produced one disappointment and one expected finish.

The disapointment came when pole vaulter Mike Tulley of Long Beach Milliken passed at previous heights and then failed in his three attempts at 15-0. Brain Goodman of Agoura eventually won the event at 14-6.

Ralph Serna of Loara did just what most people thought he would do, win the invitational mile relay. Serna didn't go nine minutes, though, clocking a 9:03.8.

On the local scene, Chino had an exceptional night. The Cowboys grabbed four victories, with three of those coming from the short distance relays.

Chino won its races in the 440, 880 and mile relays, and high jumper Joey Langarica took a first at 6 feet, 2 inches.

Ganesha also had a big night with three wins, one of them being Charles Stewart's victory in the 180 low hurdles in 19.6 seconds.

Montclair won a mile relay event in 3:24.4, while Pomona's Arthur Hodges tied for first in a long jump event with a leap of 21 feet, 1¾ inches. He tied with Matt Fadden from La Puente Wilson High.

Cal Poly enjoyed some success during the afternoon session, as the Broncos claimed a first and two seconds.

Emory Montgomery led the Broncos parade of winners by taking the first place in the triple jump at 49 feet, 3 inches.

Citrus had the same kind of success, claiming two firsts and three seconds, but in the junior college division.

Owl high jumper Mike Brown took first place in his flite of high jump at 6-7½.

Willie McLaurin gave Citrus its frist victory of the day when he captured the 120 yard high hurdles at 14.9 seconds.

Aaron's slam breaks record

ATLANTA (UPI) — Home run champion Hank Aaron broke another record Friday night when he hit his 15th major league grand slam homer in a game between Atlanta and Chicago.

Aaron's homer, which gave the Braves a 7-3 lead in the seventh, moved him one ahead of Gil Hodges and Willie McCovey for the most grand slams hit in the National League. The major league record is 23, held by Lou Gehrig.

Chambliss to Yankees in big swap

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Yankees Friday completed a seven-player trade with the Cleveland Indians that sent starting pitchers Fritz Peterson and Steve Kline to the Tribe in exchange for first baseman Chris Chambliss and righthander Dick Tidrow.

In addition to Peterson and Kline, both of whom slumped badly last season, the Yankees also gave up relievers Fred Beene and Steve Buskey, while Cleveland sweetened the pot with reliever Cecil Upshaw.

Peterson, a 20-game winner for the Yankees in 1970, was the key man in the trade as far as the Indians were concerned, even though the crafty lefthander dropped to an 8-15 last season and had lost his job in the starting rotation this year.

Peterson, 32, was involved in a wife-swapping episode with teammate Mike Kekich in spring training in last season and had been the subject of trade talks ever since. Peterson had appeared in only three games so far this season and had a 4.70 ERA with no record. The Yankees sold Kekich to the Indians last year, but he is no longer with the club.

Chambliss rips Angels

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Chris Chambliss drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double to cap a four-run seventh inning Friday night and give the Cleveland Indians a 4-3 victory over the California Angels.

California starter Nolan Ryan, who set 18 personal records in 1973, had a two-hitter and a 3-0 lead until the Indians sent the hard-throwing righthander to the showers in the seventh with his third loss in five decisions this year.

Leron Lee and Dave Duncan walked to open the seventh and pinch-hitter George Hendrick fanned. John Lowenstein beat out an infield hit to fill the bases and Jack Brohamer bounced a single off second baseman Denny Doyle's glove to score Lee. Chambliss followed by slicing a double down the leftfield line and Dick Selma replaced Ryan and retired the side.

Chargers fined $40,000

NEW YORK (UPI) — General Manager Harland Svare of the San Diego Chargers has been fined $5,000 and placed on probation and eight of his players also were fined and disciplined by the National Football League for drug-related violations, it was announced Friday.

The players were fined between $1,000 and $3,000 and placed on probationary status for violations occurring at the Chargers' training site and, in some cases, during the regular season as well, according to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The total fines against Svare, the players and the club amounted to $40,000.

The players who were penalized are: David Jones and Tim Rossovich, $3,000 each; Coy Bacon, Dave Costa and Jerry LeVias, $2,000 each; and Rick Redman, Walt Sweeney and Bob Thomas, $1,000 each.

Svare was disciplined for "failure to exercise proper supervisory controls over activities of the players and others having entree to the football operation."

In addition, the San Diego team was fined $20,000, a sum equal to the total amount of all the individual fines "for supervisory omissions by its administrative staff."

In a prepared statement, Rozelle stated: "This disregard for NFL drug policies was first brought to our attention by reports that some Charger players felt the situation was having an extremely adverse effect on the football team."

An investigation conducted by the NFL included interviews with approximately 50 persons.

According to the announcement, "player fines were predicated both on degree of individual involvement and on their subsequent awareness of the detrimental effects such actions have on professional football."

Rozelle further stated that the levels of discipline imposed on players and management should not be considered as standards for future misconduct of this nature, but rather in light of the relatively recent strengthening of the league's drug policies last June.

Dodgers best in West, best in baseball (14-5)

By BILL LANGLEY
P-B Sports Editor

LOS ANGELES — The best in the West is now the best in baseball.

The Los Angeles Dodgers enjoyed an easy 7-1 win over the Montreal Expos Friday night to take the first meeting of the Dodger Stadium weekend series between the National League division leaders.

Andy Messersmith pitched a neat three-hitter and helped his own cause with a single and double to lead the Dodgers to their fourth straight win.

The victory over the high-flying Expos gives Los Angeles a 14-5 season record — the best in baseball — to jump to a three-game lead in the National League West. Montreal remains two games on top in the East at 9-4.

L.A. scored an early knockout on Montreal starter Steve Renko by scoring five runs in the first inning to delight the 30,028 fans.

With that type of an early cushion, Messersmith was able to breeze to his second win of the season.

Messersmith was in command all the way in allowing only three walks while striking out seven.

His complete-game victory was the third in-a-row for the Dodgers, who seem to be at their best in playing the Eastern teams.

Montreal, a team averaging 6.8 runs per game entering the L.A. series, was able to score only on Ron Fairly's home run to lead off the fifth inning.

Messersmith got into trouble later in the inning when Montreal's Barry Foote singled with two outs. The Dodger righthander momentarily lost his control by walking pitcher John Montague and Ron Hunt to load the bases.

But Messersmith got Tim Foli on an infield grounder for the third out without further damage. He then retired 12 of the final 13 Montreal batters in easy fashion to finish the way he started. Foli singled with one out in the fourth inning to break the spell of 10 consecutive outs at the beginning of the game.

"It was nice to get those five runs in the first inning," Messersmith said. "I've been pitching rather poorly in the late innings lately. Montreal is a different ballclub when it is behind like that. They do things entirely differently in a one-run game."

Messersmith said he got some "help" from relief pitcher Mike Marshall, the former Expo fireman, in his pitch to Fairly. "I had a good scouting report on Montreal. Marshall went over the club and said that Fairly was a good fastball hitter. I gave him a good fastball down the middle — Haa!," Messersmith said.

Ex-Dodger captain Willie Davis was one of Messersmith's victims. Willie D, who received a mixture of cheers and jeers in his return to L.A., popped up twice, struck out and flied out in his four at bats.

Messersmith, who is batting .500 with hits in all five games, drove in the final run of the first inning and belted a solid double in the sixth.

Catcher Steve Yeager is also hitting at a .500 clip after driving in two runs in the first with a single and knocking in a third in the seventh with a double which fell between three Montreal fielders.

Three walks, Davey Lopes' tenth stolen base of the season, and run-scoring singles by Roy Cey and Willie Crawford started the first-inning explosion, with the hits by Yeager and Messersmith finishing Renko.

Bill Buckner' triple scored Lopes with a sixth run in the fourth inning.

DODGER DATA — Al Downing (0-2) will face Montreal sensation Steve Rogers (3-0) in today's 1:15 p.m. contest . . . Jim Wynn had to leave the game in the fifth inning because of a pulled muscle . . . the Dodgers have equaled their L.A. record of 14 wins in April with four games remaining this month.

Montclair errors cost game, SAL lead

Claremont High solved a problem that has plagued the San Antonio League since the season started.

The Wolfpack, behind the seven-hit pitching of John Huddleston and two unearned runs nipped Montclair 2-1 in eight innings and knocked the Cavaliers from a co-leadership in the league standings.

In other action, Bonita and Walnut scored easy Hacienda League wins while Rowland edged Azusa 2-1 in 10 innings in a Montview League tilt and Redlands nipped Chaffey 2-1 in Citrus Belt play.

Montclair's Mike Medeiros walked Huddleston on a 3-2 count with the bases loaded to force across the winning run in Friday's extra inning upset.

Tony Janusz collected his second hit for the game to lead off the bottom of the eighth. Kent Stalwick reached first on an error by shortstop Pat Proulx and Rich Tullis walked to load the bases.

Medeiros (5-3, 3-1) looked like he'd pitch out of the jam when he got Ken McCloud on a shadow fly to left and struck out Dave Allen.

But the fourth wide one to Huddleston gave Claremont the run and the win, their fourth in 10 SAL decisions.

Harold Drake struck out nine and allowed just one hit as Bonita blanked Royal Oak 7-0 and held on to its two-game edge over Alta Loma, which routed Sierra Vista 7-1, in the Hacienda League standings.

Drake (3-1 overall and 3-0 in league) had a no-hitter going until Bob Legind singled to lead off the sixth inning, only to be erased on a double play.

Drake also collected two hits and drive in three runs to lead the offense. Bruce McNaught was two-for-two with a walk and reached base when he was hit by a pitch and Rick Ortega added an RBI single.

Walnut sent 18 men to the plate in the second inning and scored 14 runs before the dust settled en route to a 20-5 rout of San Dimas.

Mike Pfeil went four-for-four with two RBI's to pace the Mustang 20-hit attack. Mark Canavan contributed three hits, including a second-inning grand slam home run, while driving in seven runs. Jim Vallandingham pitched five innings to notch his second win and helped his own cause with two hits and three RBI's including a solo homer.

Brad Wright had two hits and drove in a run while Keith MacDermott went two-for-three, drove in two runs and pitched three innings.

Ray Etchebarren singled home Rick Camacho in the top of the 10th inning to give Rowland a 2-1 win over Azusa.

Al Emeterio went the initial seven innings bdfore winning pitcher David Bourque entered to hurl the final three frames. They combined for a five-hitter.

Azusa loaded the bases with no outs in the bottom of the 10th but Bourque struck out a batter and got a game-ending double play.

Redlands came up with an unearned run in the bottom of the fifth inning to nip Chaffey 2-1 and hand the Tigers their third straight loss.

The loss drops Chaffey into second place in the CBL with a 7-3 ledger (14-6 overall).

Anthony Munoz suffered the heartbreaking setback despite a four-hitter.

Chaffey's lone run came in the first on a Rod Weigand double, steal of third and Alan Lupinetti's RBI single.

By CRAIG TRAVIS
P-B Staff Writer

LA VERNE — Damien coach Matt Kolodge said prior to Friday's Damien-Upland crucial, "the team that takes advantage of the other's mistakes will win."

The Spartan skipper was right.

Steve Iles allowed just five hits in one of his better outings of the year while his Upland teammates scored three unearned runs in the first inning en route to a 6-1 win over host Damien.

Mistakes played a dominant role in moving Upland into the San Antonio League lead.

While three Spartan fielding errors, their 17th, 18th and 19th in the past two games, were staking the Scots to four first inning runs, Claremont scored a pair of unearned runs and made them stand up as the Wolfpack edged Montclair 2-1 in eight innings.

The Upland win, coupled with the Cavalier setback, gives the Highlanders a 9-1 ledger and a one-game lead over Montclair, which holds an 8-2 slate.

The Spartan-Highlander clash was billed as a pitcher's duel between Larry Pekarcik, 8-1 on the season and 5-1 in league with an 0.69 earned run average, and Iles, who entered the affair with a 5-1 overall mark and 4-0 against SAL opponents with a 1.12 ERA.

Dale Arneson and Steve Smith started things rolling with back-to-back one-out singles, Arneson taking third. Pekarcik then uncorked a wild pitch allowing Arneson to score the first Upland run.

Russ Feaster walked and Stu DuVall lifted a routine fly to center that Dan Monroe appeared to lose in the sun. The ball, hit right to him, bounded off his glove and permitted Smith to score. Feaster advanced to third asd DuVall took second.

Tony Votaw hit a ground ball through third baseman Dean Sickles' legs, for an error, allowing Feaster to score. DuVall scored on the same play when the return throw from the outfield was dropped by Bill Karr.

"This was a great win for us," said Upland coach Herb Christian. "Steve (Iles) was really throwing hard and well. For that matter, the team played real well."

"You never know what to expect from a team after a game like their (Damien) last one,'' continued Christian. "It's important to get to these hard throwers before they find their rhythm and we got Pekarcik before he got loosened up."

The loss, Damien's second straight and fourth in 10 league decisions (15-6 overall), virtually knocks them from any hopes of a SAL title.

With four games left the Spartans trail Upland by three games.

Upland (15-4 overall) added a run in the fourth on a walk, single and Smith's scoring fly ball. Votaw doubled home Feaster for the final run in the fifth inning.

The Spartans' lone run came in the seventh inning after two were out.

Gerard Piccioni doubled, and moved to third when Arneson booted Andy Silvera's ground ball. Pekarcik, who had two straight hits, walked to load the bases and Karr was hit by an Iles fast ball to force across the run.

Ganesha edges Vikings in 12th

By JOHN KEEPERS
P-B Correspondent

POMONA — Ganesha High, led by pitching ace Ruben Ruiz, went all the way to the seventh inning with a shutout and then caught fumbleitis, letting Garey score three times to tie the game and put it into extra innings before the Giants could finally pull it out in the 12th, 5-4.

Ruiz, who went the full distance, allowed only two hits in the regulation seven innings, but saw his second baseman, Paul Madirgal, commit three errors in the final stanza.

With one out, Doug Broyles and Tom Hosack both hit consecutive ground balls to second base and both got on safely. Ordinarily, the game would have been over at this point, but Garey was still alive.

John Andrzejewski then walked to load the bases setting up an RBI situation for Pete Mendez who cashed in one with a ground out to third. This made the score 3-1 in favor of Ganesha with two outs.

Then came the third and most disastrous error by Madrigal. Andy Pedraza hit a soft tapper directly to the second baseman. With plenty of time, he hesitated a bit too long and his throw went in the dirt. First baseman Dan Houck couldn't dig it out and it got past him as both runs scored to tie the game at three.

Neither team could get anything going until the 11th when Garey broke the deadlock with two outs. Andrzejewski walked and then was knocked in by Mendez's double which got by the diving left fielder, Ralph Dudley.

But the Giants came up in their home half of that inning to remain in the game after Dave Pedroza got on due to an error. He was then removed for a pinch runner, Jim Lacey, who moved to second on Jerry Ankeney's sacrifice bunt, went on to third during Madrigal's tapper to first, and was knocked in by a clutch single by Tracy Cowger.

Ganesha won it the next inning when Ruiz, who went three for five with two RBIs, singled and made it around to third where he was knocked in by Ankeney to end a long afternoon.

Allin rips La Costa for commanding lead

RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (UPI) — Little Buddy Allin took apart the tough La Costa Country Club for the second straight day Friday, shooting a three under par 69 to grab a commanding four shot lead with a 36-hole total of 135 after two rounds of the $200,000 Tournament of Champions.

The former Army lieutenant, bidding for his fourth PGA tour victory and second of the year, had five birdies and two bogeys in his 34-35 card over the 6,855-yard La Costa layout to widen his first day margin of one stroke.

"When you put two rounds like this together," Allin said, "you feel a lot better. But I shot some high scores on this course before and those rounds are still haunting me.

"There are some tough holes out there and there's still two more days to play."

Tied for second behind Allin's nine under par total were Miller Barber and Gene Littler at 139. Barber had a second round 70 while Littler carded a 69 Friday.

Deadlocked at 140, four under par, was the twosome of John Mahaffey, with a second - round 70 and John Schroeder, with a 69.

Lanny Wadkins, who seemed to be on his way to a comeback Thursday after missing the cut in three straight tournaments, shot a 74 and fell to sixth place at 141. Wadkins had a 67 Thursday.

Allin, 29, of Santa Barbara, Calif., wasn't in a predicting mood despite his second consecutive sub-par round.

Jack Nicklaus won here last year with a 72-hole total of 276, 12 under par.

"I'm not going to predict the winning score," the 5-9, 133 pound redhaired Allin said.

Devils hold on, edge Chino 3-2

By MARK GRIP
P-B Correspondent

POMONA — An enthused Pomona High team scored three times in the first inning and fought off a futile Chino comeback to post a 3-2 win in a San Antonio League baseball game Friday afternoon.

Jim Price opened the Pomona first with a double down the leftfield line, and went to third when Chino hurler Mike Coppess fielded Mike Forsyth's sacrifice bunt and bobbled it, allowing Price to take third and Forsyth to reach first base.

Forsyth stole second and went to third on John Souza's single to right field which drove in Price and sent Forsyth to third base. Souza stole second and went to third when Coppess' pitch hit the plate and bounced to the screen allowing Forsyth to score from third.

Souza scored on the next play on Mike Wooten's ground out to the second baseman. A pop out and a ground out ended the inning with Pomona leading 3-0.

Chino stranded 11 base runners before scoring solo runs in the sixth and seventh innings.

Reyburn went in to score and Derryberry continued on to second.

Stan Surina, batting for Coppess, singled to left and Derryberry rounded third and headed for home. Forsyth's throw beat him for the final out.

The Cowboys made their final run at the Devils in the seventh. After pinch hitter Don Stone singled, John Wieman replaced Jeff Brackey on the mound for Pomona.

After a strikeout and a wild pitch Scott Richartz hit a grounder to Schaeffer at short. Instead of going for the batter Schaeffer threw to third and hit the runner (Stone) in the back. Stone scored later on a fielder's choice.

The win was Brackey's first in league competition, while the lankey Wieman picked up a save. The loss drops Coppess' league ledger to 1-2.

Such A Rush debuts today in H.P. Inglewood Stakes

INGLEWOOD — H. R. Miller's Such A Rush, one of the west's best two-year-olds in 1973, makes his long-awaited sophomore debut today in the $30,000 added Inglewood Stakes at Hollypwood Park.

The Inglewood, the first stakes ever contested at the distance of six and one-half furlongs at Hollywood Park, also attracted Debonair Stakes winner Shirley's Champion — Debonair runner-up Blue Eyed Davy, Baldwin Stakes victor Battery E., Wedge Shot, the hero of last year's prestigious Belmont Futurity — and Golden Gate Fields, invader Rocket Review, a consistent threat in stakes company on the northern California circuit.

Miradero, Little Ify, Back toting 121 pounds under the alround out the field.

Such A Rush, a son of the quick sprinter My Lark, finished second in the '73 Hollywood Juvenile Championship, then proceeded to capture four stakes including the rich Del Mar Futurity. The Dale Landers-trained colt, who earned more than $150,000 as a juvenile, will be ridden by Bill Shoemaker while toting 121 pounds under the allowance conditions of the race.

Shirley's Champion, a rapidly improving son of Noholme II and former distaff star Nevada Marga, scored in 1.08 3-5 when nosing out Blue Eyed Davy in the Debonair. Shirley's Champion will carry 117 pounds and jockey Howard Grant.

Blue Eyed Davy was the solid choice when upset by Shirley's Champion, and might have won had he not "pulled himself up when he got the lead," according to Grant, who rode the colt in the Debonair. Don Pierce has the call on the viking spirit colt for the Inglewood and he's in with 114.

Battery E., a grass loving son of Don B., is fresh from a game victory in the Baldwin Stakes at Santa Anita ower the downhill turf course. Battery E. will have the services of leading rider Laffit Pincay, jr. and will shoulder 121 pounds.

West won't quit, signs Laker pact

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jerry West will be back with the NBA Lakers again next season and that is bad news for the rival ABA's hopes of signing Bill Walton.

West, who was hampered by a pulled abdominal muscle much of last season and missed 51 games, signed a new contract Thursday to return to the Lakers for his 15th season.

No terms were announced but it was believed the former West Virginia University star signed for about the same salary he received last season in the second year of a $600,000 two-year contract.

The signing dispelled rumors that West would retire at the end of this season and at the same time killed ABA hopes to put a team in Los Angeles built around Walton, the UCLA star center, and coached by West.

Portland has the NBA draft rights to Walton and his adviser, Sam Gilbert, said Walton will announce his decision sometime next week.

Walton has said he wants to play his pro career in Los Angeles and also was reported as wanting to play on a West-coached team.

West signed the contract on the 15th green of the Bel Air Country Club course where he was golfing, after he talked with Lakers' owner Jack Kent Cooke by telephone. Cooke was in New York.

"I expect that Jerry will play at least a few more years," Cooke said, "and when his playing career has come to a fruitful close he will continue to be a valuable and working member of the Laker organization."

"There are no set years involved in the contract," said Lakers lawyer Allan Rothenberg. "It's open-ended and for as long as Jerry wants to play with some provisions for being with the Lakers after his playing days are over."

West said the decision to sign was "a spur-of-the-moment thing. In the long run I think it was the fact that I've been with the Lakers 14 years and there was some loyalty on both sides.

"I had a very attractive offer from some other people (the ABA) but playing basketball is the thing I know best."

West, who will be 36 May 28, has been with the Lakers since the franchise moved here from Minneapolis in 1960.

He missed five weeks in mid-season and shortly after he returned to the lineup was injured again, missing the rest of the season. He made a token appearance against Milwaukee in the opening playoff series in the only game the Lakers won against the Bucks.

Friends said West didn't want to end his career as an injured player, thus his decision to play at least one more season.

Sports parade

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dick Allen's three-year contract with the Chicago White Sox is the best in baseball. Good as it is, it doesn't match Larry Csonka's new one though. Csonka gets more money. Allen gets more knocks.

It's always a source of discomfort to Chuck Tanner, the White Sox manager, when anybody knocks Dick Allen, his $675,000 first baseman. They take pot shots at Allen for many different reasons—for not being there every day in spring training, for not always showing up at the ball park three hours before the game, and for not always being willing to sit down and make small talk.

Generally speaking, those who knock Dick Allen the most know him least.

Chuck Tanner probably knows Dick Allen as well as anyone in baseball. He knows him since he was a kid shooting baskets in junior high school and his affection for Dick Allen, as a human being as well as a ballplayer, is genuine.

Some people already are tying the White Sox' slow start in the American League West to a similar start by Dick Allen.

Points out details

Chuck Tanner hears something like that and immediately wishes to point out some pertinent little details about both the White Sox and Dick Allen.

"Let's see," he said, studying the team's stats' sheet before Wednesday night's ball game with Milwaukee, "Allen is hitting .214, and leads our ball club in rbi's and bases on balls. They never give him anything good to him. I mean NEVER. Everytime he walks up there, they pitch to him like it's the seventh game of the World Series.

"He has hit six shots, just punished the baseball, but each one of these line drives was right at some infielder or outfielder. If those balls would've fallen in, he'd be hitting .270 or .280."

Chuck Tanner didn't have his ready calculator with him, otherwise he would've discovered that had those six shots of Allen's found some holes, he'd be hitting .321, not .270 or .280.

"Why should Dick Allen be singled out?" asked the White Sox manager. "Look at Amos Otis. He put in a full spring training; he's having trouble getting out of the gate; he's hitting .135, but you know he'll get straightened out and have a good year. Johnny Bench is another one. He has four rbi's as of today and he's hitting .217, but he's going to be in the All-Star Game. Look, Dick Allen could hit .190 all year and play for me.

Just nonsense

"That business of him not being there for all of spring training is nonsense also. Frank Robinson had only seven official at bats in spring training for the California Angels, so what? He's still one of the greatest players in baseball. Mike Marshall said he had his own way of getting ready and wasn't going to do any running in spring training. The Dodgers told him 'you have a good track record, go ahead and do it your own way.'

"Listen, people simply don't know Dick Allen. He's like everybody else. He has two arms, two legs and he has a heart. He has feelings just like you and, me. He's a dedicated individual who stays in shape 12 months a year. People think he keeps to himself and is a loner. Maybe that's the way he is on the outside, but you ought to see him inside the clubhouse. He helps the young ballplayers. He has been instrumental in the improvement of Jorge Orta, our second baseman.

"Nobody's ever going to hurt Dick Allen as long as I'm manager," Chuck Tanner went on. "I'll never trade him, he's always going to play for me and when he's through, he'll walk into the Hall of Fame. They talk about his hitting. Why, he's one of the best base runners who ever played this game. He reminds me of Joe DiMaggio in that regard. Ever see Joe run bases? Ever see anyone run them better? Dick Allen runs them the same way."

NFL coaches facing rougher decisions

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National Football League created an unexpected dividend in the stunning package of rules changes it approved this week.

Monday mornings now may become even livelier than Sunday afternoons.

That became obvious Friday as head coaches reconciled themselves to living with the new rules, most of which will force those coaches to make tougher decisions than they are used to making —and certainly will result in more second-guessing, too.

No longer is the field goal automatic. Nor the decision to punt either, since the chance of a return is so much greater. And playing for a tie? That's gonna be tough since if you're tied, you have to play another quarter to try and break the tie.

All of the changes were designed to hypo the offense, and because of that, immediate, strong disapproval came from some of the league's most successful coaches whose teams are built on solid defenses.

Miami's Don Shula and Washington's George Allen were among the most outspoken. Allen said the league had brought back everything except the flying wedge.

Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll claimed the owners, who vote on the rules, were "tinkering too much with the basic rules of the game."

The coaches don't like to be second-guessed, but there will probably be more of it this year than ever before.

Say, for example, it's 4th-and 2 on your opponent's 32. In the past, it was a relatively routine field goal shot from the 39. Now it becomes a 49-yard kick, and if it's missed, the other team gets the ball at the 32 instead of the 20. Last year, only 39.5 per cent of the field goal attempts in the 40-49 yard range were successful. Do you still try the field goal, punt for the corner, or go for the first down?

Or if it's late in a tie game, do you settle for the tie —and thereby risk losing the game if the other team should win the coin flip at the start of overtime and score on its first possession —or gamble for the winning score right now?

The whole punting game is changed, too, because of the greater possibility of returns now that the players on the kicking team can't cross the line of scrimmage until the ball actually is kicked. An obvious solution would be to try to kick the ball out of bounds, but most coaches will tell you that accuracy declines greatly when you try to punt to a specific point on the sideline.

The NFL decided it was time for drastic rules revisions because field goals rose by 65 and touchdown passes dropped by 49 over a four-year period.

Here are some facts affecting the new rules:

Field goals—The real long ones almost certainly will become a thing of the past. Last year there were 152 field goal attempts from the 40-yard line and beyond. These now would become 50-yard-plus kicks. Few coaches would be willing to risk them, knowing they would surrender good field position if missed. The 1973 figures:

Yards	Made	Att
0-19	158	164
20-29	140	181
30-39	145	226
40-49	90	228
50-beyond	10	62

Punt returns—Barely 50 per cent of all punts in the NFL were returned last year. The rest either were fair catches or kicked out of bounds or through the end zone. The average, 8.1 yards per return, is expected to rise significantly in 1974.

Kickoffs—The rule moving kickoffs back five yards, to the 35, might not have much impact on the kickoff return itself but will start the offense out in better field position, which is one of the league's ideas—get more offense in the game. Last year approximately 75 per cent of all kickoffs were returned.

Broncos fall to Matadors

NORTHRIDGE — Cal Poly's California Collegiate Athletic Association baseball fortunes continued on the unlucky side Friday, as the Broncos dropped a wild 11-9 contest to Cal State Northridge.

The host Matadors built up a commanding 10-3 lead after six innings and survived a six-run explosion by Poly in the eighth to post the win.

Vic Bernal, victim of most of the CSN damage, absorbed the loss for the Broncos.

The Cal Poly comeback attempt in the eighth was spearheaded by Steve Herter's two-run homer, but the Broncs came up one short of overtaking the Matadors.

The win dropped Poly's again today in a doubleheader at the Bronco diamond. Northridge is attempting to overtake CS Fullerton in the CCAA staindings, and received a boost Friday as UC Riverside beat the Titans 2-1.

Stags visit Oxy, 'Hens host Leos

The pressure will really be on Claremont-Mudd's baseball team today.

The Stags (9-1) travel to Eagle Rock to play two games with Occidental (6-4). Bill Arce's team will probably need a sweep to retain its one-game lead over second place La Verne in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC).

The Leopards (8-2) play a doubleheader with Pomona-Pitzer (0-10) and are favored to win both games.

Elsewhere, Redlands (7-6) is at Whittier (9-4) for two in the only other conference game.

In District Three play, Azusa Pacific (13-2) can clinch the Southern Division title with a double win at Point Loma.

At Oxy, C-M will face George Benson in the opener and Pete Davis in the nightcap. Benson went 10 innings against the Stags in Tuesday's 15-inning marathon.

Arce used Brad Rehn for 3 1/3 innings and Ed Matta for 11 and 2-3rds Tuesday. A guess would have Matta (6-4) or Mike Bruno starting the seven-inning opener and Rehn in the nightcap. Bruno still has not recovered from a sore arm.

Ben Hines of La Verne says he'll use his aces, John Verhoeven and Dan Quisenberry, each 7-1, against the Sagehens. That is providing Verhoeven's injured finger has healed sufficiently. The nail was torn loose last Saturday at Whittier.

Mike Riskas of the 'Hens tried to pull a switch and started Dave Lane Tuesday against the Leopards. But Lane lasted less than an inning and was replaced by Jon Blacker. Riskas' ace David Jones hurled the last three innings.

It is a certainty that Jones (4-6) will start one of today's games. The biggest problem facing Riskas is having enough pitching to go two games against the hard-hitting Leos. Last year the Sagehens were beaten in the seven-inning game and threw in the towel after five innings of the nightcap.

The twinbill will feature the two top hitters in the P-B hitting derby in action. Catcher-outfielder Biff Sherman of Pomona Pitzer leads all batters with a .517 average. Designated hitter Mike Alonso of La Verne is second with a .466 mark.

Down in San Diego, Tom Nelson of Azusa Pacific will start the Jones boys, Mike (5-4) and Ken (5-1) against Point Loma. Jim Donker (4-4) will be in reserve.

The hard-hitting Cougars are averaging .321 as a team.

Angels call up Morris Nettles

ANAHEIM (UPI) — The California Angels called up outfielder Morris Nettles from their Salt Lake City farm club Friday to replace Lee Stanton, who is on the disabled list for 21 days with a broken hand.

Nettles was to report to Cleveland immediately for the Angels' series against the Indians.

In 11 games at Salt Lake City this year, Nettles batted .256 and stole five bases in six tries. He led the Texas League last year with a .331 batting average.

Bill Shoemaker in good spot to take Hollypark features

INGLEWOOD — Bill Shoemaker, already a winner of more than 600 stakes races during his brilliant career, stands an excellent chance to add two more to his total this weekend at Hollywood Park.

Such A Rush, one of California's top youngsters in 1973, will make his three-year-old debut under Shoemaker today in the $30,000 Inglewood Stakes and Sunday Shoe will come back with Linda's Chief in the $30,000 Caballero Handicap.

Both horses figure to be well played by Hollypark patrons in "Super Sweep" and "Sunday Sweep", the $132,0000 handicapping contests that continue this weekend. Bonus money in "Sunday Sweep", for anyone tabbing all nine winners, is now up to $15,000.

Such A Rush was runner-up in last summer's Hollywood Juvenile championship and then captured the rich Del Mar Futurity. He finished his two-year-old campaign with earnings in excess of $150,000.

Ready to challenge him in the Inglewood, to be raced at six and one-half furlongs for the first time, are a quartet of stakes-winning sophomores including the victor in the Debonair Stakes last week, Shirley's Champion.

Battery E., triumphant in Santa Anita's Baldwin Stakes earlier this month; Rocket Review, who gained his stakes brackets in Northern California; and Wedge Shot, winner of the prestigious Belmont Futurity as a two-year-old, also will be in the Inglewood starting lineup.

Linda's Chief, something of a disappointment this year, will carry top weight of 123 pounds as he bids for his first 1973 tally in the mile and one-sixteenth Caballero. He was a fast-finishing third in the Premiere Handicap opening day at Hollypark.

Finalista, whose 1:33 4-5 mile clocking two years ago ranks as one of racing's fastest-ever miles, and Expression, a three-time winner at Hollywood Park in 1973, are regarded the horses most likely to upset Linda's Chief.

Mt. Sac Aquatics win swim honors

WALNUT — This month ends the "short course" season for AAU swimmers. From now until August, competitive meets will be held at "long course" metered pools.

The Mt. Sac Aquatics Club wound up the season by swimming almost every weekend this month. Starting with the Older Jr. Olympics, where the teams 13 to 17 year old "A" swimmers were matched against the best in the SPA, the team placed eighth in overall competition.

Medalists at the Older Jr. Olympics included: Monte Preston, fourth, 50 yd. freestyle; Dottie Hooter, seventh, 100 yd. butterfly and seventh in the 200 yd. fly.

That same weekend, the younger swimmers on the team, starting at age 5, attended the B-C meet sponsored by the Azusa-Glendora Swim Club. This was also an "A" meet form 7 and 8-year-olds. A total of 11 medals were won by this age group. Top winners were Bill Breitenberger and Susan D'louhy.

Then this past weekend, a rare opportunity for the entire team to swim at the same time was offered by the ABC Relay and Sprinters Invitational sponsored by the Upland Aquatics Club. The Mt. Sac Marlins won over 200 medals, which gave them the commanding lead of this Eastern Section meet.

Portland signs two players

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The Portland Storm of the World Football League Wednesday signed two more players, including defensive tackle Ron Billingsley, a seven-year National Football League veteran.

Billingsley, 29, was the first round draft choice of the San Diego Charters out of Wyoming in 1967. He will be eligible to play for Portland in 1975.

He played in 62 games for the Chargers and was traded to New Orleans in 1973.

Three over 100

The Winnipeg Jets became the first major league team to have three players with over 100 points. Bobby Hull and Norm Beaudin all had 103 and Chris Bordeleau scored 101 points. All three played on the same line.

Aztecs close international part of slate

LOS ANGELES— The L.A. Aztecs close out their international season at 3 p.m. Sunday at East Los Angeles College Stdium against Universidad of Mexico City.

Los Angeles has compiled a 2-1 record against first-division Mexican teams this season, beating Monterrey, 2-1, and Atlante, 1-0. Club America handed the Aztecs their first loss last week, 2-1, before more then 14,000 fans.

Los Angeles opens North American Soccer League play May 5 against Seattle at ELAC stadium.

Universidad finished Mexican professional soccer league play last Sunday, compiling an overall 12-9-13 record for fourth play is the standings.

Universidad's midfield is strengthened by Antonio DeLaTorre. At 23 years of age, DeLaTorre is one of the youngest members of the Mexican national team.

Mexican international Leonardo Cuellar sparks the offense from his left wing position.

Universidad met Club America twice this season, recording a victory and a tie against the team which handed Los Angeles its first setback ever.

Tony Douglas has emerged as one of the most potent Aztec scorers after netting a goal and hitting the goal post against America last week.

His score with only six minutes remainging against America ignited an Aztec offensive surge which featured seven hard shots at America goalie Amador Palacios. Another Douglas shot hit the top of the crossbar.

"Douglas has a tremendous shot," says Aztec coach Alex Perolli. "And it gets better every game.

"Douglas is capable of scoring anywhere from as far as 35 yards out."

Los Angeles Managing General Partner Dr. Jack Gregory terms the international series "an outstanding sucess which gave us immediate credibility."

"The series did as much as we hoped for," continued Gregory. "It could've worked against us but we proved we can play outstanding professional soccer and gave Coach Perolli the opportunity to mold a team prior to the opening of league play."

Sunday's 12:30 p.m. preliminary game features Cal State Los Angeles College and Santa Monica City College, two of the outstanding university soccer teams in Southern California.

AZTEC NOTES — The Aztecs are carrying 21 players. The roster will be cut to 18 by the May 4 NASL deadlines . . . The Miami Toros of the NASL will play three exhibition games in Mexico during the next seven days . . . The Boston Minutemen organization has been joined by Gino Cappelletti, the 1964 AFL MVP and its leading scorer in 1963-1966 . . . Aztec forward Iris DeBrito is listed number 14 among the all-time NASL top scorers. He has scored 28 goals . . . The Seattle Sounders have signed forward Cirilo "Pepe" Fernandez, the most valuable player in the NASL in 1969 and the seventh all-time scorer. Fernandez played for the old Los Angeles Toros in 1967 . . . The Aztecs will feature "Azetc Shirt Day" at its May 5 NASL opener against Seattle . . . Largest advance ticket sale of the early season has been directed to May 12 when Kyle Rote Jr., the "Superstars Champion" and the Dallas Tornado meet the Aztecs . . . Club America Coach Antonio Rocco on the Aztecs: "They are a very good team, a surprising one. They played a hard game against us. The game was a beautiful game. All three scores were solid goals" . . . Rocco on Universidad: "They don't have our technique. They are a very rugged, aggressive team" . . . Perolli is recovering from a leg injury incurred when he was hit by a ball during an Aztec training session.

Purchase criticized

The Gadsden Purchase, whose 29,640 square miles include part of Arizona and New Mexico, was ratified in 1854 by a narrow margin because many senators felt the land was not worth $10 million. Opposition to the sale was even greater in Mexico where Santa Anna, the victor at the Alamo, was banished as a traitor for agreeing to it.

L. M. Boyd

Fat people earn less

People who are overweight don't earn as much money as people who aren't. How's that for a blunt generality? Comes from a personnel expert who analyzed the weights and wages of a batch of executives. Among men in the $25,000-to-$50,000 category, says he, only about 10 per cent are carrying too much heft. But among men in the $10,000-to-$20,000 range, 40 per cent weigh in much too heavy. Job discrimination, he calls it.

Do you realize a baleen whale has to strain about 5,000 tons of sea water just to get 10 pounds of plankton?

If you want to feel a little older today, consider the fact that it has been 24 years since Christine Jorgensen's first name was George.

Lady client says she's embarrassed to admit her husband collects dolls. Tut tut, my dear, think nothing of it. Back in the 1500s, King Henry IV of France did likewise. Pretty little things all dressed in silk.

Q. "Where in the Bible does it mention sugar?"

A. Nowhere. Nor does it mention sugar in the Talmud or the Koran. Were you aware neither the ancient Greeks nor Romans ever knew anything about sugar? They knew all about honey, though.

Q. "What kind of pay did the Japanese soldier get during World War II?"

A. Ten yen a month. Equivalent to $2.36. Of that, $1.89 was automatically sent home. And 38 cents was deducted for compulsory savings. The other 9 cents was spending money.

Q. "What's the commonest mistake people make on their income ta returns?"

A. That No. 1 error is failure to include all W-2 forms, I'm told.

Mass hysteria has been offered as another explanation of the phenomenon known as streaking. Peculiar contagion, that mass hysteria. It cropped up in Africa's Uganda 11 years ago. Almost 1,000 people, each with a white chicken tucked under the arm, started running around madly. Kept at it until they dropped from exhaustion. Noboby seemed to know why. Then there was the situation last spring in a school at Berry, Ala. Reportedly, about 125 students plus a few teachers all began to cry, complaining they itched in some places and were numb in others, and much vomiting ensued, forgive me. Nobody could explain that, either. And way back in the 1830s, the nuns in a French convent for no comprehensible reason suddenly chose to gather for several hours daily to meow like cats. Each of the foregoing is said to be a classic case of mass hysteria.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Young Men's Hebrew Association (YMHA) was founded in New York City, March 22, 1874, The World Almanac recalls. The first independent Young Women's Hebrew Association (YEHA) was founded in 1902, but YM and YWHAs have since merged into a single organization. It provides social, cultural, physical and recreational programs for all age groups and has open membership. They are today usually called Jewish Community Centers.

2 women to return for SLA probe

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two tight-lipped militant women must return next week for more interrogation by a federal grand jury investigating murder, robbery and kidnap by the Symbionese Liberation Army.

Cynthia Garvey, and Janet Cooper, both 27, were subpoenaed by the grand jury which Thursday opened its investigation of an April 15 bank robbery allegedly conducted by members of the SLA and kidnaped newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst.

The Garvey woman said she refused to answer some questions under the protective guaranty of the Fifth AMendment. Miss Cooper, a onetime student activist at Stanford, demanded she be permitted to see her attorney each time U.S. Attorney James Browning asked her a question.

A driver's license belonging to Miss Cooper was used by the SLA to rent four automobiles in the $10,960 robbery of the Hibernia Bank. She said she reported the license lost or stolen last October. A police report was filed the same day the license became missing, she said.

Miss Cooper is a former spokeswoman for the revolutionary Venceremos — from which authorities say the SLA was spawned. As a graduate student instructor at Stanford she took part in heckling Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who was invited to the campus in the mid-1960s. She was barred from the campus following the incident.

Miss Garvey has been active in anti-war activities and worked on the Chino Defense Committee. She knew people in the Venceremos, Miss Garvey told newsmen.

Investigators say Emily Harris, 29, identified as a member of the SLA, was also active in the Chino Defense Committee. Mrs. Harris is the wife of William Taylor Harris, 31, who authorities say is also a member of the SLA, possibly the man identified as "Teko" in the latest tape recorded message from the terrorists. Both Harris' are at large.

Jack Dempsey wins decision

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jack Dempsey, under an out-of-court settlement, will be allowed to operate his Broadway restaurant at least until the end of the year.

The former heavyweight champion, 87, has been waging a legal battle for months to hold on to the restaurant, which has borne his name for 37 years. His lease with Brill Brothers, former owners of the building, had eight years to run, but the new owner, Inch Corp., claimed that lease was invalid and sought to evict him.

Under a compromise agreement Thursday, Dempsey's lawyers promised that Dempsey and his partner, Jack Amiel, would vacate the restaurant Dec. 31 unless a new lease can be re-negotiated with Inch.

"We're hopeful we can get a new lease," Amiel said.

Nothing funny about money

By JOSEPH FIRMAN

I always get a little nervous when a Secretary of the Treasury retires. What does he know what we don't know? It was no exception when George P. Shultz recently announced he would leave that post in Nixon's cabinet next month. (Do they frisk a Secretary of the Treasury when he leaves office?)

The President has proposed energy chief William E. Simon, appropriately nicknamed "Bill," to take over the signing of our currency. I was a little disappointed in Shultz anyway. When he took office I thought we'd see Charlie Brown on the $1 bills instead of Washington, and possibly Snoopy replacing whoever is on the $100 federal notes—it's beeen so long since I've seen one, I forget what they look like.

Must be fun to be a treasury secretary—all that money to fool around with. I expect he has bags of silver dollars piled around his desk, and his bookshelves stacked with crisp new $10,000 bills, in case he is short of cab fare or lunch money.

Simon told reporters that inflation is our biggest problem, and the rising cost of living "is going to be our number one avenue of concentration." It's not going to be simple for Simon. But he's done such a good job solving the energy shortage that I'm sure he'll be able to end the money shortage.

Money is funny, but being out of it is no laughing matter.

Lots of things have been used for money over the years—buttons, playing cards, seashells (so paying up was "shelling out"), salt, tobacco and cattle. Even today newspaper columnists work for peanuts.

Simon was making millions as an investment banker on Wall Street when he gave it up to become undersecretary of the treasury in 1973. Not ttoo smart. He must be one of those Wall nuts. Still, I think we can trust a man as rich as that not to dip into the petty cash on his way home, right? He's Simon pure.

In the American colonies people used to cut a Spanish collar into eight pieces, or bits—thus "pieces of eight" and our expression "two bits." (Remember "Shave and a haircut, two bits"?)

Moving from Wall Street to the Oval Room of the White House won't cause Simon any problems. He'll still be among friends—Jackson, Grant, Franklin, et. al. Franklin's picture is on the $100 bill (I looked it up). Other portraits with which I do not even have a nodding acquaintance are McKinley ($500), Cleveland ($1,000), Madison ($5,000), Chase ($10,000) and Wilson ($10,000). I have several large bills in my desk, but they are marked "Please Remit" and not "Federal Reserve."

If you spent a dollar a minute, it would take you two thousand years to spend $1 billion, a record Nixon seems bent on lowering by several hundred years.

As I say, money fascinates me. Wonder where I can borrow lunch money.

Texas classes to be bilingual

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Texas' public schools will offer bilingual classes this fall to 40,000 first graders with little or no knowledge of English.

The state legislature last year passed a new law requiring every school district in the state with an enrollment of 20 or more non-English speaking children in any grade level to offer bilingual instruction.

A shortage of Spanish-speaking and other dual-language certified teachers is expected to be a major problem the first year, according to officials of the Texas Education Agency.

Fire engine red may turn yellow

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The color of fire engines in California would be changed from red to lime yellow under legislation introduced Thursday by Assemblyman Alister McAlister, D-San Jose.

McAlister said there is "considerable evidence" to indicate that lime yellow is a safer color than red. He said it can be seen easier than red.

The measure (AB4063) would require the new color when engines are repainted or or if purchased after 'Janpm if purchased after Jan. 1, 1975.

'Undiscovery Day' may find recognition

OCEAN SHORES, Wash. (UPI) — At midnight tonight, Ocean Shores residents will leave their patios and cocktail lounges, trek across the sandy beach to the water's edge and shout, more or less in unison: "Hey, George!"

It is the climax of the annual celebration of "Undiscovery Day."

It was 182 years ago on April 28 that the intrepid British explorer Capt. George Vascouver sailed right past this place without notice.

He went on to discover Puget Sound, which he named for Peter Page, Mt. Ranier which he named for a British lord, and Hood Canal, named for a British admiral.

Ocean Shores was just a pile of sand dunes at edge of the Minard Dairy farm until a promoter decided it would make a nice place for a town back in the 1950s. He enlisted the aid of singer Ginny Sims and some of her friends and replaced the bootlegging "honkers" and other squatters with expatriots from the cities.

Trouble is, the city folk can't seem to cope without some cause to celebrate.

60 students to take part in Youth Week celebration

POMONA — Sixty young people in grades seven through 12, will participate in services at White Avenue Baptist Church on two Sundays as part of a Youth Week celebration.

At 3 p.m. Sunday the youth plan to parade in the community to encourage others to attend the church services.

Fifteen youth will serve as leaders in the Church Training Program at 6 p.m., and at 7 p.m. the youth will lead in music during the evening worship service. Youth Week director is Brian Roberts, an eighth grader at Emerson Junior High School.

On May 5, 45 young people will teach in the church's Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., and will participate in the 11 a.m. worship service. During that service, John MacKirdy, a senior at Bonita High School, La Verne, will speak on the topic of faith, and the Youth Choir will sing under the direction of Roberts.

Rev. Price to attend convention

POMONA — The Rev. Harold C. Price, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church and Richard E. Nelson, lay delegate from the church, will attend the 13th annual convention of the Pacific Southwest Synod of the Lutheran Church in America at the Los Angeles International Hotel May 2-5.

The annual meeting is the major legislative assembly of the denomination's jurisdictional unit of 120,000 members in a five-state region.

Speakers at the convention will include Dr. George Fischbeck of television station KABC, the Rev. William E. Lesher, new president of the Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, and the Rev. John Wagner, executive director of Lutheran Social Services of Southern California.

In conjunction with the convention, the Youth Convo will be held from May 1 to 5. Miss Vickie Dony of the Pomona church will be attending the youth event.

Other Trinity members attending the convention will be Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Weigand, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Price.
